- The following thirty six lots, Nos 117-152, are from the collection of an avid Scottish follower who carefully kept nearly all Scotland's home programmes between the wars & during and just after WW2. The first selection across almost the whole period is offered here, the rest in subsequent sale(s). Magnificent opportunity, many very scarce items.*
- 117
1920 Rare Scotland v Ireland Rugby Programme: Over a century old, Scotland's second match back after WW1, the absolutely traditional slim orange 8pp issue from Inverleith, pictures, team pages & officials, one Newport & three Cardiff players in the sides! No numbers listed, Forsth's advert to back cover, end of story. Rare, remarkable condition, very clean with staple present and only small spine split. Exc £150-200
- 118
1922 Rare Scotland v Wales Rugby Programme: The second post-war visit of the Welsh to Inverleith, the traditional programme with musical programme listed too, emotive pics of the Scots' tributes at the Paris War Memorial etc, terrific condition for any age let alone 99 years old, staple and spine intact. Exc £100-150
- 119
1923 Rare Scotland v England Rugby Programme: The visitors' second - and last - post-war visit to Inverleith, the almost-traditional programme with pics, teams & musical programme listed too, but this year the teams were printed on fold-in pages in the same orange as the covers, no staples used. If this was to save the spines it didn't work - spine has had to be very cleanly magic taped! O/w very good for age £100-130
- 120
1924 Rare Scotland v Wales Rugby Programme: The issue as ever for this last Welsh visit to Inverleith, a huge 35-10 defeat and the root of the 'Take a good look at the Forth Bridge lads, you won't see it again at the WRU's expense' story! Generally VG £90-120
- 121
1925 Rare & Historic Scotland v England Rugby Programme: Scotland's 14-11 Calcutta Cup win and Grand Slam clincher over the Auld Enemy at the official opening of the hugely impressive new Murrayfield Stadium. What more could you ask? Well, this first ever programme from that venue, in fine condition with v small spine split, great aerial photo of the new ground, and the (short-lived) habit of a small, parchment-style teams and musical programme insert. Marvellous and truly historic memorabilia £100-150
- 122
1926 Scarce Scotland v Ireland Rugby Programme: Lovely condition and fine photos in the standard issue for this, Ireland's first Murrayfield 'Celtic cousins' clash. Scotland became Champions. Excellent £80-110
- 123
1927 Scarce Scotland v NSW Rugby Programme: Not often seen, this issue is from the first overseas visit to Murrayfield, by the NSW Waratahs of 1927-8. Lovely photo and full tourists' squad details, though necessarily in pretty small print. Excellent, near mint £80-110
- 124
1927 Scarce Scotland v France Rugby Programme: Interesting issue for the first French trip to Murrayfield, with a map to the centre spread showing the geographical distribution of French clubs, and again the parchment-style teams and musical programme insert. Lovely item, tiny invisible tape to parts of spine £75-100
- 125
1928 Scarce Scotland v Wales Rugby Programme: The typical Murrayfield style for the Welsh visit and 13-0 win of 1928, very good condition £70-90
- 126
1929 Scarce Scotland v England Rugby Programme: Lovely condition, barely a spine split, very clean, from England's 12-6 defeat by champions-to-be Scotland at Murrayfield £60-90
- 127
1930 Scarce Scotland v Ireland Rugby Programme: Four lovely recent team photos and the standard teams page; far from standard that the original staple and spine are intact! 14-11 Ireland win. Virtually immaculate £50-75
- 128
1931 Scarce Scotland v France Rugby Programme: The Scots won 6-4 in this last 'Old Alliance' clash before the French were 'exiled' from the tournament for 15 years: and ironically at last the Scots allowed the visitors (only) to have numbers in the programme! Standard issue, beautiful condition £50-70
- 129
1932 Scarce Scotland v S Africa Rugby Programme: As if produced yesterday, not c.90 years ago, the Springboks' 6-3 win on their maiden Murrayfield appearance. Four numbers are noted alongside names. Lovely clean issue with historic team photos from the 1906 and 1912 S African tours. Exc £60-100
- 130
1932 Scarce Scotland v Wales Rugby Programme: The Welsh won 6-0 and the standard issue programme is in good condition with just a little damp wrinkle to one small corner, and Wales' letters on their players' shirts were recorded in the programme for the first time, Scots none. O/wise VG £40-60
- 131
1933 Scarce Scotland v England Rugby programme: Some former damp wrinkling and small tears to margin of centre pages as Scotland beat England 3-0 to win the Calcutta Cup and, eventually, the title. Both sides finally have numbers appended in the programme, but Scotland have a bizarre system of their own: Scrum half 1, pack 2-9, full back 10, threes and fly half 10-15 the 'wrong' way! FG £40-60

- 132
1934 Scarce Scotland v Ireland Rugby Programme: 16-9 win for the hosts, traditional issue, traditional perversity from them too: different numbers again, half backs 14 & 15, hooker 8, props 1& 3, back row 2,6, 7, full back 13, threes 9-12! Irish pack just as odd, though! Exc £40-70
- 133
1935 Scarce Scotland v England Rugby Programme: The issue 'as per usual programme' as it were, a jumble of Scottish numbers, with the fly halves Wilson Shaw and, in his only cap, J R 'Dick' Auty. Scots won 10-7. Beautiful crisp condition, a lovely item £40-70
- 134
1936 Scarce Scotland v Wales Rugby Programme: Wales wearing letters, yet another change of numbering for the hosts, who lost 13-3 to eventual champions Wales. Three games for them, aggregate scores, 16-3! How times change. Almost immaculate £40-70
- 135
1937 Scarce Scotland v England Rugby Programme: At least the Scottish pack have consecutive numbers for this match, though the opposite deirection from ther visitors, who won 6-3 to be champions. This one is immaculate £40-70
- 136
1938 Scarce Scotland v Wales Rugby Programme: Yet another change of numbering for the hosts but an 8-6 defeat for the Welsh, as Scotland went on their way to the Triple Crown and Championship. Usual lovely team pics from the past. Excellent condition £40-70
- 137
1939 Scarce Scotland v England Rugby Programme: The Scots had gone from war to war with barely a change to programme layout, that familiar slim orange 8pp issue with Forsyth's ad to back cover; the same could not be said for their team numbering, which, once they eventually allowed it, seemed to change every game! This was to prove the last international game before the Second World War. Although seven would return to international rugby after it, six players who took part in the game, four of them airmen, would lose their lives on active service. Both fullbacks, Scotland's George Roberts as a Japanese PoW & England's Ernest Parsons from NZ, whose only test that was; a bomber pilot, he won the DFC but was to die over Italy in 1940, just one day before England prop and airman Derek Teden. From the back rows, Scotland's Donald Mackenzie, RAF, and England's Robert Marshall, Navy, DSC and bar, were to perish while Scotland scrum-half Tommy Dorward was to prove another RAF fatality. Historic and in very good condition £50-75
- 138
1942 Rare Wartime Rugby Programme, Scotland v England: Sticking to the orange pattern but 4pp from Inverleith for this Services Charities encounter, long-time ad sponsors Forsyths Ltd Sports Outfitters doing the honours. Plenty of caps on show. Excellent £40-70
- 139
1943 Rare Wartime Rugby Programme, Scotland v England: Again at Inverleith with a wartime Murrayfield requisitioned, classic style with this time four Rugby League stars allowed (on the England side, of course), three backs and a forward. Remarkable mint condition £40-70
- 140
1944 Rare Wartime Rugby Programme, England v Scotland: At Leicester but, provoking a real double-take, in identical 4pp orange slim Scottish style, with this time the London branch of Forsyth's taking the ad/sponsors' credits for the Services Charity clash, with many capped players. Again, three Rugby League England backs: and a Private made it into the Scottish XV! VG condition £50-80
- 141
1945 Rare Wartime Rugby Programme: England v Scotland: Again at Leicester for Charities but once more in Scottish 4pp orange fashion, for another cap-crammed clash as the war in Europe neared its end. Excellent & very collectable £50-80
- 142
1939 Rare and Famous Wartime Four Nations Rugby Programme: Hugely desirable E/W v S/I Red Cross Match issue from Richmond, Dec 1939 during the 'phoney war'. E/W won 17-3, with a smart programme having what was often also a wartime Scottish cover, Forsyth's again covering the issue's expenses. 8pp, with player pictures, though several changes occurred between those and the (correct) team pages being printed; eg Wooller, Clement & Davies out, Davey, Prescott & the legendary (soon to be a fatality) Prince Alex Obolensky in. Blair 'Paddy' Mayne also featured, but from these teams, as well as 'Obo', Teden, Penman and Sayers were all killed in action. Eng/Wales skipper Gus Walker lost an arm and Brydon spent five years as a PoW. Lovely condition, fine memorabilia £80-110
- 143
1939 Scarce Scotland, East v West Rugby Programme: From Myreside, Edinburgh, Dec 1939, a Red Cross Charity match, 4pp foldover in excellent condition £30-50
- 144
1943 Scarce Scotland, East v West Rugby Programme: From Myreside, Edinburgh, Dec 1943, a Lady Provost's HM Forces Comforts Fund Charity match, 4pp foldover in great condition £30-50
- 145
1944 Scarce Scottish Services v RAF Rugby Programme: New Year's Day 1944 at Myreside, Edinburgh, for the Lord Provost's Red Cross Fund. Rugby League players and Dominions players too, as the Scots won 11-6. Same pattern but with attractive joint Services badge to cover. VG order £30-50
- 146
1945 Scarce Scottish Services v RAAF Rugby Programme: This one was against, note, the Royal Australian Air Force XV, whose airmen faced a pretty full Scottish XV but ran them close, 14-10, as Murrayfield came back into play in Feb 1945. Mint condition £30-50
- 147
1945 Scarce Scottish Services v Northern Command Rugby Programme: At Murrayfield, March, close to the War in Europe's end, and in aid of Service Charities. Future 1950 Lions in scrum half Angus Black and forward John D Robins (also Lions coach 1959), possibly unique - as a Welshman later to be capped for his country having already played during the war for both England and (billed as Coventry & England) for the Scottish Services! Near mint £30-50
- 148
1944 Very Rare Australia v South Africa Services Rugby Programme: Billed as such, and for the Airborne Forces' Security Fund, a clash between two of the 'Empire's' leading rugby nations, with the Aussies' Air Force taking on all three services from S Africa at Murrayfield in October. The men from Down Under edged home 14-11. Excellent order £40-70

The following imposing and impressive item, lot 448, comes from S Africa with splendid provenance, having previously been in the possession of the daughter of J S Le Roux, a wing and member of the First Springboks team touring in Europe in 1906-7, whose scrapbook it was, and she has neatly annotated the inside back cover to that effect.

Hugely Rare 1906 Springbok's Tour Scrapbook: A substantial hard covered professionally bound volume, c. 11" x 9" x 2", half bound in dark red leather to spine and corner tips, very solid boards, title in gold to black label stuck neatly to spine for Jacob(us) S Le Roux, Springbok wing and tourist in 1906-7. The vast majority of its 192 pages have been carefully filled with contemporary cuttings from the British and S African press: daily and weekly papers, periodical pictorial magazines and so on. Every word that was findable in welcome, preview, speculation, match report and review, triumphant return home and general comment seems to have been included, with several familiarly iconic full page spreads, drawings, cartoons, poems, caricatures and photographs. Spectacular images of the size of the farewell & welcome home crowds are included, and the densely-written match reports and comments (including the wins over Wales and Ireland, draw with England and defeat to the Scots) give a clear impression of the times and of the interest taken in these first S African tourists and their talents. A splendid and important piece of memorabilia and huge research source all in one place, lovingly preserved 115 years on. (The accounts of the British Lions of 2021 to S

Africa will doubtless be fully available online)! In remarkably good condition for its age and evident regular reading, the edges of cuttings folded to fit tending to fray a tad, but all wholly legible and rewarding to the careful handler. Not many such will still exist, one feels sure: a magnificent chance for the S African or wider collector £1000-1500

The following two magnificent lots, Nos. 449 & 450, are formerly the property of Steve Fenwick, Bridgend, Wales and the British Lions, captain of Wales in Centenary Season 1980-81 and for a time Wales' most-capped centre. He toured NZ with the 1977 Lions and captained the combined Wales & England XV v Scotland & Ireland in the rare four-nations game celebrating the WRU Centenary in 1980. He also played Rugby League for Wales.

449
Rare 1977 British Lions Dress Blazer etc: Immaculate and beautifully presented, with discreet and attractive British Lions' badge to breast pocket and specially-badged silver-coloured buttons, the presentation blazer of centre Steve Fenwick, 30-times capped centre who played in all four tests of the rain-soaked and unlucky 1977 Lions' tour of NZ. These items rarely come to the market and a better example could hardly be found. The black blazer has been professionally mounted and is in a frame measuring c.39" x 31": the buyer may choose to receive the item removed from the frame should they wish. A fine opportunity to purchase a lasting and lovely piece of rugby history from a splendid Welsh and Lions player, scorer and leader. Comes with autographed Lions v Barbarians Queen's Jubilee 1977 programme and ticket from Twickenham and JBG Thomas' book of the tour, again signed by Steve to title page and to photograph. Excellent and exciting £500-750

450
Rare 1980 Four Nations Wales/England Centenary Jersey etc: Only on rare occasions have the four nations of these islands combined to play rugby against each other, the most recently 40 years ago when the WRU celebrated their centenary, 1980-1. The distinctive, attractive jerseys worn in these are by nature and necessity few and much sought-after. Here is a perfect example, the once-worn, scarlet and bright white quartered jersey with black numbers & large special embroidered badge of the Wales & England side who narrowly beat Scotland & Ireland at Cardiff, captained by the wearer of their No 12 jersey from the game, Steve Fenwick. He was captaining Wales in their 100th year, was for a time to be their most-capped centre with 30, and had played in all four British Lions tests in NZ in 1977. Comes with the programme from that game and three others from Centenary season plus a Wales v NZ 1980 ticket, all signed by Steve. Memorabilia extremely hard to obtain and in marvellous condition, ideal for display £700-1000

In 1950 Dundee signed him from Derby for the sum of £22,500, it was a transfer that hit the headlines for a player to go north of the border for such a high amount; in the next few years Dundee secured the Scottish League Cup in 1952 and 1953 and were Scottish Cup finalists in 1952 providing a good club success for the investment. Billy left Dundee in 1954 when he moved to the USA and his Scotland international career ended with 30 appearances overall.
