LIVE INTERNET BIDDING

You can bid live or follow this auction online, details from our website, www.mullenslaurelpark.com.

ABSENTEE BIDDING

1. If you are unable to attend you may bid before the sale, using the form provided. Enter the maximum you are prepared to offer for each lot and the auctioneer will bid on your behalf as if you are in the saleroom. The lot will be knocked down to you at one bid higher than the next-highest bid, up to your highest bid. Example: your bid is €7,000 and the auctioneer receives a bid of €5,800 – the lot will be knocked down to you at €6,000 if there are no further bids.
2. EQUAL BIDS: In the event of equal bids being received for the same lot the first received will be given preference. If the instruction "break ties" is entered on the bid form the auctioneer will increase the bid by one step in the event of equal bids being received or in the event of a tie with a room bidder.
3. INVOICING AND PAYMENT: Successful absentee bidders will be sent a pro forma invoice after the sale with details of payment methods. All invoices must be paid within 7 days of the date of sale or the lot(s) may be deemed in default and any subsequent losses incurred on resale become the responsibility of the bidder. The Auctioneers and House Agents Act, under which we are licensed to hold public auctions, only allows for lots to be handed over to purchasers when paid for in full.

TELEPHONE BIDDING

Subject to availability we can telephone clients during the sale. This facility is only available on lots with a lower estimate of €300 or more. In the event of us not being able to contact you when your lot comes up, the auctioneer will bid to the lower estimate on your behalf.

CONDITION OF LOTS

Note: The lots in this sale are old artefacts and documents and vary greatly in condition. They are therefore offered with all faults and buyers are strongly recommended to satisfy themselves as to condition by inspecting them beforehand. Please see Terms and conditions on page 3.

SHIPPING / POSTAGE

We do not handle this ourselves but will recommend a suitable company who can collect your purchases on your behalf and pack and despatch them to you once they have been paid for.

PURCHASING FROM OUTSIDE IRELAND

It is the bidder's responsibility to ensure prior to bidding that the item on which they are bidding may be imported into their country. All or any taxes, duties or tariffs payable on importation to the buyer's country are at the buyer's responsibility.

FIREARMS

Most firearms offered in this sale are either antiques or deactivated. Those that are not can only be delivered to persons with a valid firearms licence.

EXPORT LICENCES

May be required for objects of archaeological interest or of national importance sold to buyers outside the State.

IVORY

Certain countries, including the USA, prohibit the importation of ivory including antique worked items. Such lots may be seized and confiscated by the relevant authorities.

Tomás O Donohoe joined Fianna Éireann at its inaugural meeting at 34 Camden St., in August 1909, soon becoming a section leader and committee member. He was also a member of the Pipers' Band, alongside Peadar Kearney. He became a founder member and secretary of the National Guard in which youths, not boys would be trained in arms. He continued in the Pipers' Band and through it eventually joined the Irish Citizen Army in 1913.

O Donohoe received a commission from James Connolly in April 1916, three weeks before the Rising. In command of a section of twelve men, he was posted at the Shelbourne Hotel corner of St. Stephen's Green on Easter Monday. Following the retreat to The College of surgeons he led a number of sorties from the building. After the surrender he was imprisoned in Knutsford Gaol before being transferred to Frongach where he worked as hospital orderly. Active in the War of Independence, he was a member of 2nd Company 5th Battalion.

Following the Civil War, during which he was interned, O Donohoe was ordained a priest. Over 2,000 worshipers attended his first mass. He is buried in the Republican plot in Glasnevin Cemetery next to his lifelong friend Countess Markievicz.

Secret Orders Issued to Military Officers, known as "The Castle Document", April 1916 "The following precautionary measures have been sanctioned by the Irish Office on the recommendation of the General Officer Commanding the Forces in Ireland ....", handbill, 1pp. 7¼" x 5", as circulated by Patrick J. Little, New Ireland newspaper, 13 Fleet Street, Dublin, 15 April, 1916. The document that sparked the Rising. Rare. Provenance: Whytes Auction, 5 April, 2008, lot 200. Private Collection. In an attempt to encourage Eoin MacNeill to order a Rising, the IRB forged a notice purporting to be decoded from a communication from Dublin Castle. Produced by Joseph Plunkett the document appeared to order the execution of Eoin MacNeill, the arrest of Volunteer leaders and the occupation by the Army of strategic points around Dublin. On being shown the forged document, on Wednesday 15 April 1916, MacNeill issued the orders to proceed with the Rising. New Ireland, a nationalist weekly newspaper, edited by Patrick J. Little, published the text of the document on a single sheet handbill entitled "Secret Orders issued to Military Officers". By this time MacNeill had discovered the truth and placed his infamous advertisement, countermanning the Rising in the Irish Independent, causing the IRB to defer the rebellion by one day, to Easter Monday, 24 April.
