1891 Hugely Rare & Magnificent North v South Rugby Dinner Menu: A thing of beauty and great survivor, the 4pp fold over card menu with teams, officials and toast list from what it proudly proclaims 'the first N v S match held north of Leeds'. It was at the Grand Hotel, Newcastle, on the 19th Dec 1891, and this marvellously designed/decorated item for what was then often in effect the English final trial includes some of the greatest names of the day, on and off the field. This of course predated the 1895 'Schism' with the N Union, and Lockwood, Alderson, Rotherham, Marshall, Ashworth, Bromet etc feature, with portraits of Rowland Hill, Harry Vassall & Chair E T Gurdon, RFU President, drawn to the cover with its fine elaborate artwork, and even an impression of the Tyne swing bridge. Pride galore, a real event. Some foxing to one rear edge, otherwise remarkable good at over 130 years of age! A terrific piece of very early rugby memorabilia £350-750

Hugely Rare 1911 French International Rugby Cap: Scarcely ever seen, a beautiful honours cap from just the second season of France's participation in the Five Nations tournament. In marvellous condition despite its age, cream velvet six-panelled example with gold braiding and 1911 to peak & red & blue Olympic style rings, E (for Ecosse, Scotland) and A (for Angleterre, England) to three of the panels. Full gold wire tassel present. Slight fraying to internal satin lining, otherwise excellent and a close to unique chance to own & preserve great early French rugby history. It is strongly suggested, though not a certainty, that this may be the cap of fly-half George Peyrou, who was the only player with just those two career selections for France. He played for Aviron Bayonnais, then Perigueux in 1910-11, whence he gained his caps. He settled in Madagascar, where he helped establish rugby, very popular there today, and sadly died from plague in 1926. The Antanarivo Stadium was named after him. Superb opportunity, so rare!

The British & Irish Lions is an epic tale: this full history of the touring team has been produced on an equally massive scale. The first 30 tours since 1888 are detailed in more than 120,000 words, through the memories, diaries and letters of more than 50 Lions and their opponents, and through piecing together the evidence assembled from two years of research in both the northern and southern hemispheres. Had some frame folding & fading but presents a largely uniform scarlet and of course has the Forsyth's label with Pask's name, the Lions crest and plasticised white stitched 21 (with some discolouration) to rear. Rare 1974 British & I Lions Signed & Matchworn Jersey: Recently-deceased Llanelli, Wales, Barbarians and Lions fly half and later captain, the legendary Phil Bennett's 1974 jersey from the second test at Pretoria on the Unbeaten Lions' great tour to SA some fifty years ago. It has been boldly but neatly signed by Phil in black marker below the badge. Umbro make, 42", with Lions crest and to rear, stitched white cloth 10. It has been washed and that familiar faint pinkish resultant tinge can be seen to parts of the white collar etc. He had scored an iconic 50-metre try in that test, was of course the sidestepping catalyst for the 'try of all time' by Gareth Edwards for the 1973 Baabaas v NZ and had helped Llanelli beat the same All Blacks three months earlier. One of the true greats of the Welsh, British and World game. A fantastic chance to own this superbly historic item. Comes with an account of his career, hand signed by himself and by fellow Lion, JPR Williams. VG £9000-12000
