DAME LAURA KNIGHT (BRITISH 1877-1970)

LAMORNA COVE NO.7 (A STONY BEACH)

Oil on canvas

Signed (lower right)

45.5 x 51cm (17¾ x 20 in.)

Painted circa 1920.

Provenance:

Westmorland Fine Arts

Private Collection, London (probably acquired from the above circa 1970)

Thence by descent to the late owner

Undated but believed to be circa 1920, being the date of a number of similar scenes painted of Lamorna Cove from this vantage point.

There are seven works titled Lamorna Cove, six of which are of very similar scenes of Lamorna Cove harbour and four of which are oil on canvas. The works vary as between each other in depicting slightly different scenes of boys in a rowing boat within the harbour, swimming in the sea and depicting different aspects of the harbour. The artist states in her autobiography “Many studies were done in the cove itself that year, which resulted in a picture called “Lamorna Cove”, the little bay being turned to gold by the reflection of the sun shining on the cliff above”. The artist is referring to what has been catalogued as #0203 Lamorna Cove No. 2, exhibited at the Royal Academy in 1920.

Painted from the top of Trequernow Cliff, not far from Flagstaff Cottage, where Lamorna Birch lived and not far from the artist’s wooden studio shed perched on the rock face, provided by Colonel Paynter who owned most of the land in the surrounding area. Lamorna Cove is flanked by rugged granite cliffs rising to 300 feet. On the eastern flank there are huge piles of quarry spoil, of large chunks of granite that have weathered with vegetation taking hold.

The scene reflects what the artist sees in the little bay being turned gold by the reflection of the sun shining on the cliffs, particularly on the crests of the ripples of the sea waves. The scene also depicts a lady and several children sat on the quarry spoil chunks of granite beside the sea. The lady could well be Houghton (Lamorna Birch’s wife) and her two daughters together with some other local children gazing at the clear blue waters with its golden reflections. In the background is shown the quarry Count house in front of the quarry worker cottages.

We are grateful to R. John Croft F.C.A. for his assistance in cataloguing this lot which will be included in the Laura Knight Catalogue Raisonne currently being prepared.

Laura Knight: A Celebration, 17 May - 16
September 2021

Gypsy and traveller communities have long cherished the tradition of gathering at racing events, particularly at Ascot and Epsom, as horses have always held significant importance within the traveller community. These occasions, following months of travel, offered a chance for communities to meet and celebrate. The races provided a vibrant backdrop for socialising and an opportunity to display their finest clothes and jewellery. It became tradition to sell flowers and lucky heather to fellow attendees, a tradition that continues to this day.

During the 1930s, Laura Knight regularly attended the races at Epsom Downs and Ascot, initially recommended by her friend Sir Alfred Munnings. Her connection with Ally Bert, wife of a circus performer, led to an introduction to Mr. Sully, who owned a garage.

Mr. Sully kindly agreed to chauffeur Knight and her companions in his Rolls Royce, which, with its high roof, accommodated Knight's easel and canvas comfortably.

Knight would record from life scenes from these meets, capturing the festivities, characters and everyday life providing a unique insight into these historic meets.

'This Royal meeting was a special occasion for the gipsies [sic.]; they came in their bright satin gala dresses, hair elaborately arranged with curls soaped to their cheeks, their sharp black eyes alert for police as they made a round of parked cars which had passengers standing on top. Out came a crystal from a hidden pocket, and a wheedling voice offered to tell fortunes - forbidden by law. They never bothered Laura at her easel in the Rolls; she was a source of money in another way, for now she asked gipsies [sic.] of different ages to pose for her, and paid them. More important still, they knew that she liked and admired Romany folk' (J. Dunbar, Laura Knight, 1975, p. 143)

Laura Knight beautifully captures the essence of Romany life through her paintings. Following on from the races, Knight was welcomed into the travelling community, spending time painting direct from life in Iver. She engaged intimately with the community which lends her work a remarkable authenticity and realism that is both honest and romantic. In the present lot, the Ascot racecourse is depicted in the distance, with the Queen Anne Enclosure visible in the upper right corner. The lawn is scattered with groups of people at leisure, relaxing and resting under the trees. Central to the composition are two female figures: one seated and the other lying with her head resting in the lap of the seated figure. The seated figure wears a striking red cape with primary blue sleeves and a yellow tartan skirt, her auburn curls flowing over her shoulders. The figure lying down has jet black hair with a curl resting on her forehead. Her arms are delicately placed on her friend's knee, her right arm gently entwined with her companion's. The soft pastel shades of her patterned dress create a serene and beautiful contrast.

We are grateful to R. John Croft F.C.A. for his assistance in cataloguing this lot which will be included in the Laura Knight Catalogue Raisonne currently being prepared.

“ To use the word Arcadia here is not affection. No other word could describe Langham Mill, its lock, bridge, mill-pool, floodgates and trees. No miller's daughter out of a Tennyson poem ever dwelt in such a spot as this. It is thirty years since I came to live here. From 1919 to 1935 I used to paint there, bathe there, row there in a boat, walk there, ride there. To know it was three miles away gave me a distinct happiness. ”

Tilton is a farming hamlet where John Maynard Keynes and his wife Lydia Lopokova lived in Tilton House, the little white building with grey roof at centre of this composition. Bell has set up her easel to face Tilton, with her back to Charleston, on the gravel terrace between the house and the pond. A comparable view is illustrated on p. 113 of Richard Shone's catalogue which accompanies the exhibition The Art of Bloomsbury at the Tate Gallery in 2000.

Exhibited:

Literature:
MacDougall, Sarah; Dickson, Rachel, Bomberg (London: Ben Uri Gallery and Museum, 2017), no. 62, p. 105

Like many others, Bomberg found himself unsettled in the aftermath of the First World War. Support from The Tate in 1923 through the Duveen Drawings Fund saw two works by Bomberg enter the permanent collection boosting morale to the struggling artist. Nonetheless, it was his friendship with Muirhead Bone, whom he had met through the Canadian War Memorial Project, which spearheaded Bomberg's involvement within the Zionist movement. Artists such as Jacob Kramer following the 1917 Balfour Declaration were employed as official artists to produce works in support of the establishment of a Jewish homeland in Palestine. However, despite Bone's support of Bomberg and negotiations with Leonard Stein, the political secretary of the Zionist Organisation Bomberg was turned down as an official artist. Bone persisted and managed to arrange a commission from the Palestine Foundation Fund (Kere Heyesod) who were focused on recording 'Zionist Reconstruction.' With financial support from Bone, Bomberg and his wife arrived in Jerusalem in 1923, via Alexandria and Jaffa. Bomberg was immediately struck by the contrast between the architecture of Jerusalem in both the modern and historic quarters set against the dramatic landscape. This fascination with the landscape continued over the coming years whilst Bomberg studied the Judean Hills trekking into the desserts of Petra and Jericho. Bomberg lived in the Old City of Jerusalem looking out across to the Mount of Olives.

It is possible that this present study for the Palestine Restoration Fund Poster was produced before Bomberg arrived in Jerusalem as a sample to illustrate his skills for the Zionist Organisation, which he was eventually turned down from. Comparisons have been drawn to a design for Coterie Magazine that Bomberg produced in 1919, depicting a lone figure constructed of angular lines set against a composition of geometric shapes. This work was in fact never published. The present lot is filled with a subdued colour palette with earthy tones of brown and mauve possibly inspired by the rich soil and landscape of Jerusalem. The lone figure fills the left side of the composition, the right arm stretched high above their head to read the proclamation. A beacon of light shines brightly overhead representing hope.

“ I want to be quite free of having to find a ‘reason’ for doing ‘Reclining Figures’ and freer still of having to find a ‘meaning’ for them. The vital thing for an artist is to have a subject that allows (him) to try out all kinds of formal ideas - things that he doesn’t yet know about for certain but wants to experiment with, as Cézanne did in his ‘Bathers’ series. In my case the reclining figure provides chances of that sort. The subject-matter is given. It’s settled for you, and you know it and like it so that within it, within the subject that you’ve done a dozen times before, you are free to invent a completely new idea. ”

This striking portrait by Glyn Philpot depicts Arthur Christie (1895-1975) friend and model of the artist. Philpot was renowned for his skill in capturing character and intimacy through portraiture, making him one of the most sought-after and highly paid society portraitists of his time. However, his most successful works were those created in relaxed, informal settings, where he established a genuine connection with his sitters.

In this portrait, Philpot skilfully captures Christie's prominent features including his angular jawline, vivid red hair, intense gaze, defined lips, and prominent brow. The viewer is immediately struck by the intensity of the sitter's gaze, a motif Philpot repeated throughout his works influenced by the great Venetian master, Titian. Philpot greatly admired the work of Titian and actively practiced and taught his techniques at the Royal Academy Schools. Despite the beautiful interplay of light and shadow across the sitter which illuminates Christie the portrait is set against a dramatic dark backdrop which creates a stunning contrast reminiscent in the work of artists such as John Singer Sargent and James McNeill Whistler.

Lot 93 was first exhibited in 1923 at Philpot's solo exhibition at the Grosvenor Galleries under the title Portrait Study for the Three Kings. It is believed that the present portrait was a study for The Adoration of the Three Kings (1918), a work exhibited at the Royal Academy that same year and later sold by the Baltimore Museum of Art at Christie's in 1990 to a British private collector. (See Figure 1.)

The Adoration of the Three Kings depicts three sumptuously cloaked figures bearing gifts as they arrive at the stable door. The viewer takes the perspective of Mary, Joseph, and the infant Jesus, as the Magi cross the threshold bathed in a golden light. Raised in a devout Baptist family, Philpot's early religious teachings profoundly shaped his life and artistic vision. His interest in biblical themes was evident as early as 1903 when, at just 19, his painting The Elevation of the Host was accepted at the Royal Academy of Arts. This work, depicting the raising of Christ during the Eucharist, reflected his early engagement with Christian iconography from a distinctive and modern perspective.

In 1906, Philpot converted to Roman Catholicism, a decision that created significant tension within his family. His subsequent travels through Spain, Portugal, and Morocco deepened his study of Catholic imagery and the works of the Old Masters. These experiences significantly influenced his art, inspiring some of his most powerful religious-themed paintings. By 1929, Philpot had become the first president of the Guild of Catholic Artists and Craftsmen, solidifying his commitment to his faith. However, his devout Catholic beliefs often conflicted with his identity as a queer man-a tension that permeates his body of work.

This portrait of Arthur Christie was acquired by Sir Edmund Davis, the Australian-born mining financier and prominent art collector. Sir Edmund Davis was advised by Charles Ricketts and Charles Shannon and built an impressive collection that included works by James McNeill Whistler, William Orpen, and Edward Burne-Jones, some of which were later bequeathed to the Musée du Luxembourg. It is likely that Sir Edmund Davis purchased this portrait from the 1923 Grosvenor Gallery exhibition. The work was later lent by Davis to the Tate Gallery's Paintings and Sculpture by the Late Glyn Philpot exhibition in the summer of 1938.

Following Sir Edmund Davis' death, the portrait was sold at Christie's alongside other notable works from Davis' collection, including Rodin sculptures, a lead figure by Philpot, and paintings by James Pryde and James McNeill Whistler. The work was eventually acquire by Philpot's sister, Daisy Philpot and thence by descent to Gabrielle Cross, the artist's niece.

Philpot frequently returned to certain models, portraying them in various roles and guises throughout his career. Among his most notable muses was Henry Thomas, whom he met in 1929. It has been suggested that Arthur Christie may have also been the model used for the Angel Gabriel in The Angel of Annunciation (1925) and for The Transfiguration of Dionysus before the Tyrrhenian Pirates (1924).

Jean and Henry Dauberville, Bonnard, Catalogue raisonné de l'oeuvre peint, vol. III Paris, 1965, p. 386, no. 1493 (illustrated)

The Cote d'Azur had been a recurring source of inspiration to Bonnard since his first visit to Saint Tropez in 1909. He subsequently returned on a regular basis exploring the region until, in the mid-1920s, he bought Villa du Bosquet in the hilly suburb of Le Cannet, overlooking the bay of Cannes. Whilst Bonnard had already honed his skills as a colourist in the north of France, the incomparable light and vibrant colours of the south proved a revelation as it had already done to so many of his contemporaries. Surrounded by this intoxicating landscape, Bonnard incorporated seascapes and coastal scenes into his already broad oeuvre.

In the present composition, painted a few years before he settled at Le Cannet, the sea and sky merge in a kaleidoscope of blues, greys and whites; the horizon line disappearing almost imperceptibly over into the cloud strata. The onset of the 1920s marked a turning point in Bonnard's style. As a founding member of the Nabis in 1888, Bonnard had paved the way for the transition between Impressionism and Modernism. His admiration for Paul Gauguin had led to the development of broad, flattened planes of colour, combined with a penchant for the decorative. Promeneuses sur le Port de Cannes employs many of the same techniques with its use of thick, flat paint strokes combined the vibrant splashes of colour on the figures, on the red boat at the right and the luminescent yellow highlights dotted across the composition.

In 1906, at the instigation of his friend and fellow painter Henri Manguin, Lebasque visited the Provence region of France. It was an experience that was to radically influence his painting. The unique Mediterranean light proved irresistible to Lebasque and for the next thirty years, his works would be dominated by the landscape of the south of France. The family spent prolonged periods in the region, at Saint-Tropez in 1906, Sanary in 1911, Nice in 1913, Sainte-Maxime in 1914, Cannes in 1920 and Le Pradet in 1923.. Finally, in 1924, Lebasque left Paris for good and settled at Le Cannet, north of Cannes, where he was to remain for the rest of his life.

Le Pradet, close to Toulon, is an area that Lebasque painted on a number of occasions from circa 1911. The figure reading under the olive tree is almost certainly one of the artist's daughters.

Denise Bazetoux, Henri Lebasque, Catalogue raisonné, vol. I, Paris, 2008, no. 655, illustrated p. 189

The authenticity of this work has been confirmed by Madame Christine Lenoir and Madame de la Ville Fromoit.

La Coiffure shows the artist's wife, Ella, and their eldest daughter, Marthe. It is one of the many depictions of domestic and family life painted by the artist throughout his career. These intimate portrayals capture a moment in time, a glimpse into the lives of those they illustrate. For Lebasque, it was one of his favourite subject matter and he frequently painted Ella, Marthe, his younger daughter Nono (christened Helene) and his son Pierre. Lisa Banner discusses the artist's choice of subject matter: "Lebasque's vision of life led him to concentrate upon intimate domestic scenes and close, interior compositions. He was hailed as the painter of "Joy and Light" by art critics and curators of the Louvre in his later life. But Lebasque's primary concerns were with simple expression of sensuous surface... He achieved an intimate manner of painting those scenes and people most dear to him, which was replete with his personal delight in form and color, heightened by his contact with fellow painters Matisse and Bonnard, but characteristically his own" (L. Banner, Lebasque, 1865-1937, San Francisco, 1985, p. 20).

Lebasque arrived in Paris in 1886, studying under academician Léon Bonnat, receiving a traditional art education. He assisted Ferdinand Humbert with decorative murals at the Panthéon and his early work is characterised by its rather sombre palette. However, he quickly became fascinated with the Impressionist movement and sought to acquaint himself with artists such as Pierre Bonnard, Pierre-Auguste Renoir, Edouard Vuillard and Camille Pissarro. He developed lasting friendships with these painters and his work was undoubtedly influenced by their work, both in subject matter and style.

In 1900, Lebasque settled at Lagny-sur-Marne in the eastern suburbs of Paris. In 1903, alongside Matisse, Bonnard and Vuillard, amongst others, he was one of the founding members of the inaugural Salon d'Automne. The present work, which dates from a couple of years later, and shortly before the artist's first one-man show at the prestigious Galerie Georges Petit in Paris in 1907, reveals the influence of not only those artists, but also Signac and Seurat.

Lebasque's handling of the paint is soft and sensuous. The short brush strokes echo his former interest in Pointillism whilst the interplay between the colours and the use of contrast with light and shadow show him moving towards a more gestural, intuitive style.

Literature:
 Fanny Guillon-Laffaille, *Raoul Dufy, Catalogue
 raisonné des aquarelles, gouaches et pastels*, Editions Louis Carré & Cie, 1981, p. 88, cat no. 244 (illustrated)

Since first visiting the south of France in 1903, Dufy returned virtually every year to soak up the warmth and experience the unparalleled effect of light on the landscape. The present work depicts olive groves beyond a set of impressive gates and the rolling hills of Provence in the background. The colours are typical of Dufy's colour palette - luminous blue washes and vibrant greens that pop out from the sheet and immerse the viewer in the scenery.

Born in Le Havre in 1877, Dufy moved to Paris in 1900 to study at the Ecole Nationale supérieure des Beaux-Arts. He was initially influenced by the Impressionists until, in 1905, at the Salon des Indépendants, he was enthralled by the work of Henri Matisse and turned his attention to the Fauvist movement. The Fauves preference for strong, bright colours applied in sweeping emotive brushstrokes over realistic and representative depictions, appealed to the young Dufy.

However, it was not until the 1920s, after experimenting with Cubism, that Dufy developed his mature style. Retaining the preoccupation with light and colour, his mature works are eminently decorative, with subject matter ranging from glittering coastal views of the Cote d'Azur, to cafe scenes, horse racing and fashionable townscapes.

The present work is typical of Dufy's mature style, with its fluid black outlines, foreshortened perspective and distinctive colour palette.

ARMAND GUILLAUMIN (FRENCH 1841-1927)

PAYSAGE DE CROZANT AU PRINTEMPS

60 x 73cm (23½ x 28½ in.)

Painted circa 1905.

To be included in the second volume of the Catalogue Raisonné Armand Guillaumin currently being prepared by the Comité Guillaumin (Stéphanie Chardeau-Botteri, Dominique Fabiani, Jacques de la Béraudière).

The present work depicts a radiant scene of early spring in Crozant, the picturesque village, south of Paris. This bright and luminous composition highlights Jean-Baptiste Armand Guillaumin's (1841-1927) mastery en plein air painting. Warm tones, embedded in the loose brushstrokes of the landscape, evoke a sense of joy, while the vivid yellow and pink accents infuse the work with a palpable energy. Beyond its technical brilliance, the painting reflects Guillaumin's artistic journey—a testament to his resilience during years of struggle and a celebration of the fulfilment he achieved in his later life.

Born in Paris, Guillaumin spent his childhood in Moulins in the Bourbonnais region before returning to the capital to pursue business studies. However, his passion for art, kindled during evening drawing classes in his youth, soon took precedence. In 1861, he enrolled at the Académie Suisse, where he formed lifelong friendships with Paul Cézanne and Camille Pissarro. Pissarro, often appeared in Guillaumin's early works, reflecting their close collaboration and shared artistic endeavours.

Despite his evident dedication to painting, Guillaumin faced significant challenges in his early career. To make ends meet, he worked on the Paris-Orléans railway and later in the Highways Department, taking on night shifts to reserve his days for painting en plein air. This dual existence, though demanding, offered him a unique opportunity to immerse himself in the transformative landscapes of industrialising France—a theme that came to epitomise modernity.

Guillaumin's persistence paid off in 1874 when he exhibited alongside Claude Monet and Auguste Renoir in the first Impressionist exhibition, known as Salon de Refusés. Over the following years, he remained one of the movement's most loyal participants, showcasing his work until 1886. In the same year, he befriended Vincent van Gogh and found profound inspiration in their exchanges of ideas. Van Gogh's brother, Theo, managed to sell some of Guillaumin's paintings, providing crucial support.

Paysage de Crozant au Printemps, created in 1905, captures the tranquillity and fulfilment that ample Guillaumin's later years. His confident strokes and luminous palette celebrate the picturesque charm of Crozant while embodying the contentment of an artist who devoted his life to portraying nature's splendour. Each brushstroke conveys Guillaumin's profound bond with his environment, inviting viewers to share in the serene beauty of the world he so passionately revered.

London, Portland Gallery, Edward Seago, Diamond Jubilee Exhibition, June-July 2012, no. 12

After the turmoil of the Second World War, Seago returned to his native East Anglia where he settled in the village of Ludham. The 1950s and 60s saw him attain celebrity status in London, such were the popularity of his paintings, with regular sell-out shows at Colnaghi Galleries. He was one of small number of artists who were officially invited to paint the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II in 1953. He sailed up the Thames in Capricorn, one of his boats and moored at Cadogan Pier, near Chelsea Embankment, where he stayed for over three weeks. He subsequently moored there regularly with special dispensation from the Port of London Authority on his visits to London.

Seago painted many views of London throughout his career but his depictions of the river are some of his most accomplished, showing to best effect his mastery of light and reflection. The soft impressionistic tones perfectly capturing the muted light of the city at sunrise, exuding a sense of calm by the water before the hustle and bustle of the day begins.

The Art and Career of Naum Gabo*, New Haven & London, 2000,
p. 40 figs. 21 and 23

Following the outbreak of the First World War, Naum Gabo and his younger brother Alexei were forced to flee Germany, spending the war years in exile in Norway. During this time, Gabo began to define his artistic identity, exploring sculptural concepts alongside his interests in engineering and mathematics. He created a series of preliminary pencil studies for Constructed Torso, one of which is presented here.
This study reveals the artist's process as he experimented with different positions for the head and arms of the kneeling figure.

Gabo constructed his sculptures using metal segments, incorporating vertical figuration with lines and flat planes. The final version of Constructed Torso was produced in metal plate, measured 137cm in height, and was purchased by the Russian state in 1920. Unfortunately, this original construction is now believed to be lost. However, two cardboard models have been preserved-one at the Berlinische Galerie and the other at Tate (fig. 1).

In 1920, Gabo returned to Russia, where he and his elder brother, Antoine Pevsner, published The Realistic Manifesto. This manifesto outlined the principles of Constructivism, emphasizing the significance of space and time while rejecting traditional artistic elements such as colour, volume, and line. Gabo and Pevsner argued that art should not merely represent life but be an integral part of it.

In July 1957 Nicholson married Felicitas Vogler and in 1958 they left St Ives for Ascona in Switzerland, renting a house overlooking Lake Maggiore at Ronco. Nicholson naturally joined the local golf club but also started to make reliefs again which he continued to do throughout the 1960s. Settling in Switzerland, Nicholson helped to design the house that the couple were to build just outside Brissago with beautiful views across the Lake.

ALBERTO MAGNELLI (ITALIAN 1888-1971) | LOTS 182-184

In 1931, Alberto Magnelli visited the Carrara quarries. He was immediately inspired by the monumental rock formations and developed a series titled Pierres. Lot 183 and Lot 184, both dated 1933, illustrate outstanding examples from this series. The works present abstracted rock formations composed of simplified, overlapping shapes, arranged in a seemingly precarious balance, leaving the viewer uncertain as to whether the structure might topple or fall. This in turn creates great tension and dynamism pulsating through the works. Magnelli's use of thick black outlines and blocks of bold colour enhances the sculptural quality of the forms, reminiscent of a technique employed by Henri Matisse. The buildup of white pigment further evokes the natural texture of stone.

Born in Florence in 1888, Magnelli was the son of a wealthy textile trader. In 1914, he travelled to Paris to acquire artworks for his uncle's collection, including pieces by Pablo Picasso, Alexander Archipenko, and Juan Gris. Deeply influenced by the Cubist movement, Magnelli established connections with artists such as Fernand Léger, Piet Mondrian, and Wassily Kandinsky.

During World War II, Magnelli spent most of his time in Grasse, Provence, where he worked alongside Sonia Delaunay and Jean Arp. Due to material shortages, he primarily focused on collage during this period. After the war, he returned to Paris, fully embracing abstraction in his work. Voix en Silence (1950) exemplifies his signature geometric compositions, where precisely arranged angular lines interlock seamlessly, evoking the structured movement of a puzzle or a game of Tetris. The contrast between linear and curved forms generates a sense of dynamic energy radiating from the centre of the canvas. The composition is enriched by gradients of purple, blue, brown, and grey, creating a contemplative and subdued colour palette.

PROPERTY FROM THE COLLECTION OF THE LATE SANDY WILSON (1924-2014) | LOTS 190-197

Born in Sale, Cheshire in 1924, Sandy Wilson was educated at Harrow School and Oriel College, Oxford where he wrote revues for the Oxford University Experimental Theatre Club.

In 1953 he wrote The Boy Friend, a comic pastiche of 1920's musicals. It opened at the Player's Theatre Club in April the same year, before moving to the Wyndham's Theatre in the West End in January 1954 and ran for more than 5 years with over 2000 performances. A huge success, it quickly moved to New York and opened on Broadway in September 1954, starring Julie Andrews in her debut Broadway appearance. Wilson wrote a number of other West End musicals, including the sequel to The Boy Friend, titled Divorce Me, Darling! and Valmouth, however he will always be remembered for The Boy Friend and although he was not happy with the production, it was successfully adapted into a film, directed by Ken Russell and starring Twiggy in 1971.

Bronze with brown patina
Signed with initials and numbered I/V (on the torso) 22 x 31cm (8½ x 12 in.)

Conceived in 1961.

Literature:

D. Ferran & V. Holman, The Sculpture of F.E. McWilliam, Lund Humphries in association with the Henry Moore Foundation, Farnham, 2012, p. 134, no. 234 (not illustrated)
Roland Penrose, McWilliam, Alec Tiranti Ltd., London, 1964, illus. pl. 99,100

The present sculpture is from McWilliam’s series exploring variations of the reclining figure which led to an exhibition at Waddington Gallery in 1963. Bodies poised in mid motion with the extremities lightly touching the surface on which it is placed juxtaposed with sharp angular lines focusing the viewer on the negative space created by the shapes and the light that shines through.

This series of reclining figures evolved into large-scale figures such as Hampstead Figure, 1964 and Puy de Dome Figure, 1962. Roland Penrose published the first monograph on the artist in 1964 and was described by Penrose as ‘an inventor of styles.’

McWilliam shares the avant-garde platform with Moore and Hepworth, Bryan Robertson, Private View, London: Nelson, 1965, p.97

IMPORTANT NOTICES

BUYING AT DREWEATTS
There are several ways you can bid at a Dreweatts auction; in person, by leaving a commission or absentee bid, on the telephone where available and live via the internet – please make arrangements before the sale. THIS NOTICE APPLIES ONLY TO A PERSON WHO WISHES TO BID IN PERSON, OR BY LEAVING A COMMISSION OR ABSENTEE BID, AT A DREWEATTS PUBLIC AUCTION. For bidding at an online auction or for online bidding at a public auction please see our Online Auction Terms published on our website at www.dreweatts.com.

BIDDING IN PERSON
If intending to buy you are required to register your name and details at reception prior to the commencement of the auction. You will be required to provide a proof of identity and address to register for bidding. You will then be allocated a bidding number, which you use when bidding for an item.

COMMISSION BIDS
Dreweatts will execute bids on your behalf if you are unable to attend the sale. Commission or absentee bids are accepted either directly at reception, or can be sent by post, fax, email, telephone or via the website: www.dreweatts.com.
Dreweatts will add these bids to the auctioneers’ sale book and will undertake to purchase the lots on your behalf as cheaply as allowed by other bids and reserves. If two buyers submit identical commission bids Dreweatts may prefer the first bid received.

Dreweatts does not accept liability for failing to execute commission bids, or for any errors or omissions.

CONDITION
Bidders must satisfy themselves as to the condition of each lot. Condition reports are available on request – see the Conditions of Business at the back of this catalogue forming part of these Auction Terms and Conditions for more information regarding condition reports. Requests for condition reports must be submitted by 4pm on the day prior to the auction; condition reports may be available alongside the lot description on the online catalogue at: www.dreweatts.com.

COMMISSION CHARGES
All purchases are subject to a buyer’s premium, which is charged per lot at 26% of the hammer price (31.2% including VAT) up to and including £20,000, 25% (30% including VAT) of the hammer price from £20,001 up to and including £500,000, 20% (24% including VAT) of the hammer price from £500,001 up to and including £1,000,000 and 12.5% of the hammer price (15% including VAT) in excess of £1,000,000. A theta symbol (θ) indicates that the lot is a zero rated item and therefore not subject to VAT on the buyer’s premium. This applies to bound books (manuscripts and printed), unframed maps and albums. In the event the lot has a dagger (†) beside the lot number in the catalogue, this indicates that the lot is owned by an entity or company required to pay VAT (generally not an Antique Dealer, as they operate under a dealers margin scheme). VAT is payable at 20% on the Hammer Price. Lots marked with a double dagger (‡) (presently a reduced rate of 5%) or Ω (presently at standard rate of 20%) have been imported from outside the UK under Temporary Admission regime and therefore the buyer must pay the import VAT at the appropriate rate on the duty inclusive hammer price.

PAYMENT
Payment will be accepted, if you are a successful bidder, by debit card issued in the name of the Buyer by a UK bank and registered to a UK billing address; by all major UK issued credit cards issued in the name of the Buyer and registered to a UK billing address with the exception of Diners Club; by bank transfer direct into our bank account, Bank Details: NatWest, 30 Market Place, Newbury, Berkshire RG14 5AG. Account Name: Dreweatts 1759 Ltd. A/C: 62412949, Sort Code: 60-15-07, BIC: NWBKGB2L, IBAN: GB21NWBK60150762412949. The name of the bank account holder should match the name of the buyer. First time buyers who are not present at the saleroom are requested to pay by bank transfer.

CITES REGULATIONS
Please note that lots marked with the symbol (Y) in this catalogue may be subject to CITES Regulations when exported. Relevant CITES Regulations may be found at www.gov.uk/guidance/cites-imports-and-exports.

COLLECTION OR DELIVERY
Before being able to collect your purchases you are required to pay the hammer price, plus the applicable commissions, and obtain a receipt acknowledging payment. Collection of the purchased lots is at the purchaser’s risk and expense and whilst Dreweatts do not provide packing and despatch service we can suggest some carriers.

Collections on the day of the sale (Wednesday 12 March) will be from Dreweatts Donnington Priory salerooms. All items will be moved to Dreweatts Hambridge Lane on Thursday 13 March and will be available for collection from Dreweatts Hambridge Lane (not Donnington Priory salerooms) from Monday to Friday (9am–5pm) by appointment only. If you wish to have the item shipped to you, please see the list of suggested shippers on our website.

STORAGE CHARGES
All items not collected by 4pm, within four working days of the sale, will be automatically removed to commercial storage and subject to a minimum storage charge of £20 (plus VAT) per lot and to a further storage charge of £3 (plus VAT) per lot per part or full day thereafter. These charges will be the sole liability of the purchaser and will be billed directly to them by Sackville-West Moving & Storing; Sackville-West Moving & Storing may be willing to adjust their charges if they are instructed by the purchaser to deliver to them. On payment of all sales and storage costs, items will be available for collection by appointment from Sackville-West Moving & Storing (Andover), tel: + 44 (0) 2080 909988, email: office@sackvillewest.co.uk. These charges are set by Sackville-West Moving & Storing; we recommend that you contact them directly regarding queries relating to these charges and other questions relating to storage. Staff at the saleroom will be unable to answer questions relating to items that have been removed from the saleroom.

INFORMATION FOR BUYERS AT PUBLIC AUCTIONS

1. INTRODUCTION. The following notes are intended to assist Bidders and Buyers, particularly those inexperienced or new to our salerooms. All of our auctions and sales are conducted on our printed Auction Terms and Conditions, including these Conditions of Sale and Business, which are readily available for inspection and normally accompany catalogues. Our staff will be happy to help you if there is anything you do not fully understand.

Any particular auction and/or any particular lot in an auction may be subject to different or additional terms which will be published in our auction catalogue. All auctions and sales of wines and spirits, jewellery, watches and clocks are subject to the special terms set out in the relevant Notices in relation to those items published in our auction catalogue and, in the event of any conflict or inconsistency, those special terms prevail over any other terms in our Auction Terms and Conditions. By bidding at the auction, you agree to be bound by these terms.

2. AGENCY. As auctioneers we usually act as agents for the seller whose identity, for reasons of confidentiality, is not normally disclosed. Accordingly if you buy at auction your contract for the item or items purchased is with the seller and not with us as the auctioneer.

3. ESTIMATES. Estimates are designed to help buyers gauge what sort of sum might be involved for the purchase of a particular lot. Estimates may change and should not be thought of as the sale price. The lower estimate may represent the reserve price and certainly will not be below it. Estimates do not include the Buyer’s Premium or VAT (where chargeable). Estimates are prepared some time before the sale and may be altered by announcement before the sale. They are in no sense definitive.

4. BUYER’S PREMIUM. The Conditions of Sale forming part of our Auction Terms and Conditions require the buyer to pay a buyer’s premium on the hammer price of each lot purchased. The buyer’s premium is 26% of the hammer price up to and including £20,000, 25% of the hammer price from £20,001 up to and including £500,000, 20% of the hammer price from £500,001 up to and including £1,000,000, and 12.5% of the hammer price in excess of £1,000,000. VAT at the prevailing rate of 20% is added to buyer’s premium and additional charges as defined below.

5. VAT. A theta symbol (θ) indicates that the lot is a zero rated item and therefore not subject to VAT on the buyer’s premium. This applies to bound books (manuscripts and printed), unframed maps and albums. A dagger symbol (†) indicates that VAT is payable by the purchaser at the standard rate (presently 20%) on the hammer price as well as being an element in the buyer’s premium. This imposition of VAT is likely to be because the seller is registered for VAT within the United Kingdom and is not operating the Dealers Margin Scheme. A double dagger (§) indicates that the lot is being sold whilst subject to temporary importation and that import VAT at the reduced rate (currently 5%) calculated on the hammer price is due. (Ω) Indicates that the lot has been imported from outside the UK and that import VAT at the standard rate (currently 20%) calculated on the hammer price (inclusive of any applicable duty) is due. Lots offered subject to temporary importation (§ or Ω) require relevant customs procedure to be completed prior to the property leaving Dreweatts’ premises or being exported. Dreweatts will issue the instruction to a customs broker or shipper upon receipt of full payment for the lots. The import VAT charged for lots with symbols † or Ω can be refunded if Dreweatts is instructed to re-export the property or if the VAT liability is transferred to another Temporary Admission authorisation. Lots which appear without the above symbols indicate that no VAT is payable on the hammer price; this is because such lots are sold using the Auctioneers Margin Scheme and it should be noted that the VAT included within the buyer’s premium is not recoverable as input tax.

6. DESCRIPTION AND CONDITION. Condition reports are provided on our website or upon request. The absence of a report does not imply that a lot is without imperfections. The detail in a report will reflect the estimated value of the lot. Large numbers of such requests received shortly before the sale may mean that reports cannot be provided for all lots. Members of staff are not trained restorers or conservators and, particularly for higher value lots, you should obtain an opinion from such a professional. Dreweatts is not liable for damage to gilded picture frames, plaster picture frames or picture frame glass; if a Lot is or becomes dangerous, we may dispose of it without notice to bidders in advance in any manner we see fit and will be under no liability for doing so. We recommend that you always view a lot in person.

We are dependent on information provided by the seller about a lot and whilst we may inspect lots and act reasonably in taking a general view about them we are normally unable to carry out a detailed examination and frequently no examination of lots in order to ascertain their condition in the way in which it would be wise for a buyer to do. Intending buyers have ample opportunity for inspection of goods and, therefore, accept responsibility for inspecting and investigating lots in which they may be interested and the corresponding risk should they not do so. Please note carefully the exclusion of liability for the condition of lots contained in the Conditions of Sale. Neither the seller nor we, as the auctioneers, accept any responsibility for their condition. In particular, mechanical objects of any age are not guaranteed to be in working order. However, in so far as we have examined the goods and make a representation about their condition in the auction catalogue, we shall be liable for any defect which is not reflected in that representation and which that examination ought to have revealed to the auctioneer but which would not have been revealed to the buyer had the buyer examined the goods. Additionally, in specified circumstances lots misdescribed because they are ‘deliberate forgeries’ may be returned and repayment made. There is a 3 week time limit. (The expression ‘deliberate forgery’ is defined in our Conditions of Sale).

7. ELECTRICAL GOODS. These are sold as ‘antiques’ only and if bought for use must be checked over for compliance with safety regulations by a qualified electrician before use.

8. EXPORT OF GOODS. Buyers intending to export goods should ascertain (a) whether an export licence is required and (b) whether there is any specific prohibition on importing goods of that character because, e.g. they may contain prohibited materials such as ivory. Ask us if you need help.

Private overseas buyers can only receive goods free of VAT or have the VAT amount refunded if Dreweatts acts as exporter in relation to the sale, the goods are exported within 3 months of the sale and Dreweatts is in possession of adequate export documents. The VAT refunds are available for transactions exceeding £2,500. If you arrange for the goods to be picked up/delivered to you directly we will charge UK VAT at the appropriate rate and no refund will be available. Please note, buyers are responsible for completing the importation procedures as well as the payment of any relevant duty/VAT payable on importation into the destination country.

Where the purchase has been made in the business or trading name, VAT refund will be available on proof of export provided within 3 months of the sale.

9. BIDDING. Bidders will be required to register before the sale commences and lots will be invoiced to the name and address on the sale registration form. Bidders are required to provide a government issued identity document and a proof of address. Please enquire in advance about our arrangements for telephone bidding.

10. COMMISSION BIDDING. Commission bids may be left with the auctioneers indicating the maximum amount to be bid excluding buyer’s premium. Dreweatts will add these bids to the auctioneers’ sale book and they will be executed as cheaply as possible having regard to the reserve (if any) and competing bids. If two buyers submit identical commission bids the auctioneers may prefer the first bid received. Please enquire in advance about our arrangements for the leaving of commission bids by telephone or fax. Dreweatts does not accept liability for failing to execute commission bids, or for any errors or omissions.

11. METHODS OF PAYMENT. Payment will be accepted, if you are a successful bidder, by debit card issued in the name of the Buyer by a UK bank and registered to a UK billing address; by all major UK issued credit cards issued in the name of the Buyer and registered to a UK billing address with the exception of Diners Club; by bank transfer direct into our bank account, Bank Details: NatWest, 30 Market Place, Newbury, Berkshire RG14 5AG. Account Name: Dreweatts 1759 Ltd. A/C: 62412949, Sort Code: 60-15-07, BIC: NWBKGB2L, IBAN: GB21NWBK60150762412949. The name of the bank account holder should match the name of the buyer. First time buyers who are not present at the saleroom are requested to pay by bank transfer.

12. COLLECTION AND STORAGE. Please note what the Conditions of Sale state about collection and storage. It is important that goods are paid for and collected promptly. Any delay may involve the buyer in paying storage charges.

13. λ ARTIST’S RESALE RIGHT (DROIT DE SUITE) ROYALTY CHARGES. Under Artist’s Resale Right (ARR) UK art market professionals (including, but not limited to, auctioneers, art dealers and galleries) are required to collect a royalty for works of art produced by qualifying artists each time a work is resold during the artist’s lifetime and for a period up to 70 years following the artist’s death. This payment is only applicable to qualifying works of art when the hammer price reaches or exceeds £1,000. The charge is calculated on the portions of the hammer price according to the following rate bands:

Royalty Rate	Portion of the hammer
4%	up to £50,000
3%	between £50,000.01 and £200,000
1%	between £200,000.01 and £350,000
0.5%	between £350,000.01 and £500,000
0.25%	in excess of £500,000

The royalty charge is capped at £12,500 per artwork. All royalty charges are passed on, no handling costs or additional fees with respect to these charges will be retained by Dreweatts. The ARR charge is VAT exempt. All items in this catalogue that are marked with λ are potentially qualifying items. The charge will be added to the buyer’s invoice and must be paid before items can be released to the buyer.

TERMS OF CONSIGNMENT FOR SELLERS IN PUBLIC AUCTIONS

The sale of goods at our public auctions and a seller’s relationship with us are governed by our Auction Terms and Conditions including these Terms of Consignment for Sellers in Public Auctions and our Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions. Any particular auction and/or any particular lot in an auction may be subject to different or additional terms which will be published in our auction catalogue or separately announced prior to the auction. All auctions and sales of wines and spirits, jewellery, watches and clocks are subject to the special terms set out in the relevant Notices in relation to those items published in our auction catalogue and, in the event of any conflict or inconsistency, those special terms prevail over any other terms in our Auction Terms and Conditions. Please note that our Auction Terms and Conditions including these Terms of Consignment for Sellers in Public Auctions and our Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions relate to auctions held in our salerooms and we have separate terms and conditions for our online auctions.

If you, or another person acting on your behalf, provide goods to us to sell on your behalf at one of our auctions this signifies that you agree to and will comply with our Auction Terms and Conditions including these Terms of Consignment for Sellers in Public Auctions and our Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions.

1. INTERPRETATION. In these Terms the words ‘you’, ‘yours’, etc. refer to the Seller and if the consignment of goods to us is made by an agent or otherwise on the Seller’s behalf we assume that the Seller has authorised the consignment and that the consignor has the Seller’s authority to contract. All obligations that apply to the Seller under these Terms of Consignment for Sellers in Public Auctions shall apply to the owner of the goods and their agent jointly and separately. Similarly the words ‘we’, ‘us’, etc. refer to the Auctioneers.

2. WARRANTY. The Seller warrants that possession in the lots can be transferred to the Buyer with good and marketable title, free from any third party right and encumbrances, claims or potential claims. The Seller has provided all information concerning the item’s ownership, condition and provenance, attribution, authenticity, import or export history and of any concerns expressed by third parties concerning the same.

3. ALL COMMISSIONS. and fees are subject to VAT at the prevailing rate.

4. COMMISSION. is charged to sellers and all selling terms are available from our salerooms.

5. REMOVAL COSTS. Items for sale must be consigned to the saleroom by any stated deadline and at your expense. We may be able to assist you with this process but any liability incurred to a carrier for haulage charges is solely your responsibility.

6. LOSS AND DAMAGE OF GOODS
(a) Loss and Damage Warranty - Dreweatts is not authorised by the FCA to provide insurance to its clients, and does not do so. However Dreweatts for its own protection assumes liability for property consigned to it at the lower pre-sale estimate until the hammer falls. To justify accepting liability, Dreweatts makes a charge of 1.5% of the hammer price plus VAT, subject to a minimum charge of £1.50, or if unsold 1.5% of our lower estimate. The liability assumed by Dreweatts shall be limited to the lower pre-sale estimate or the hammer price if the lot is sold. Dreweatts is not liable for damage to gilded picture frames, plaster picture frames or picture frame glass; if the Lot is or becomes dangerous, we may dispose of it without notice to you in advance in any manner we see fit and will be under no liability for doing so.

(b) If the owner of the goods consigned instructs us in writing not to take such action, the goods then remain entirely at the owner’s risk unless and until the property in them passes to the Buyer or they are collected by or on behalf of the owner, and clause 6 (a) is inapplicable.

7. ILLUSTRATIONS AND PHOTOGRAPHS. The cost of any illustrations or photographs is borne by you. The copyright in respect of such illustrations and photographs shall be the property of us, the auctioneers, as is the text of the catalogue.

8. MINIMUM BIDS AND OUR DISCRETION. Goods will normally be offered subject to a reserve agreed between us before the sale in accordance with clause 9. We may sell Lots below the reserve provided we account to you for the same sale proceeds as you would have received had the reserve been the hammer price. If you specifically give us a “discretion” we may accept a bid of up to 10% below the formal reserve.

9. RESERVES
(a) You are entitled to place prior to the auction a reserve on any lot consigned, being the minimum hammer price at which that lot may be sold. Reserves must be reasonable and we may decline to offer goods which in our opinion would be subject to an unreasonably high reserve (in which case goods carry the storage and loss and damage warranty charges stipulated in these Terms of Consignment).

(b) A reserve once set cannot be changed except with our consent.

(c) Where a reserve has been set which we consider unreasonably high, an unsold charge will be payable in the event that the lots fails to sell, being the agreed selling terms calculated on the reserve, LDW at 1.5% and any photographic charges.

(d) Where a reserve has been placed only we may bid on your behalf and only up to the reserve (if any) and you may in no circumstances bid personally.

(e) Reserves are not usually accepted for lots expected to realise below £100.

10. ELECTRICAL ITEMS. These are subject to detailed statutory safety controls. Where such items are accepted for sale you accept responsibility for the cost of testing by external contractors. Goods not certified as safe by an electrician (unless antiques) will not be accepted for sale. They must be removed at your expense on your being notified. We reserve the right to dispose of unsafe goods as refuse, at your expense.

11. SOFT FURNISHINGS. The sale of soft furnishings is strictly regulated by statute law in the interests of fire safety. Goods found to infringe safety regulations will not be offered and must be removed at your expense. We reserve the right to dispose of unsafe goods as refuse, at your expense. The rights of disposal referred to in clause 10 and 11 are subject to the provisions of The Torts (Interference with Goods) Act 1977.

12. DESCRIPTION. Please assist us with accurate information as to the provenance, lawful import etc. of goods where this is relevant. There is strict liability for the accuracy of descriptions under modern consumer legislation and in some circumstances responsibility lies with sellers if inaccuracies occur. We will assume that you have approved the catalogue description of your lots and that your lots match those descriptions unless informed to the contrary. Where we are obliged to return the price to the buyer when the lot is a deliberate forgery under Condition 15 of the Conditions of Sale and we have accounted to you for the proceeds of sale you agree to reimburse us the sale proceeds and in any event within 7 days of our written notice to do so.

13. UNSOLD. If an item is unsold it may at our discretion be re-offered at a future sale. Where in our opinion an item is unsaleable you must collect such items from the saleroom promptly on being so informed. Otherwise, storage charges may be incurred. We reserve the right to charge for storage in these circumstances at a reasonable daily rate.

14. WITHDRAWN AND BOUGHT IN ITEMS. These are liable to incur a charge of 15% commission, 1.5 % Loss and Damage Warranty and any other costs incurred including but not limited to illustration and restoration fees all of these charges being subject to VAT on being bought in or withdrawn after being catalogued.

15. CONDITIONS OF SALE. You agree that all goods will be sold on our Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions. In particular you undertake that you have the right to sell the goods either as owner or agent for the owner with good and marketable title and free and clear of any third party rights or claims. You undertake to compensate us and any buyer or third party for all losses liabilities, costs and expenses suffered or incurred arising out of or in connection with any breach of this undertaking. We will also, at our discretion, and as far as practicable, confirm that an item consigned for sale does not appear on the Art Loss register, which is administered by an independent third party.

16. DUE DILIGENCE CHECKS AND ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING PROCEDURES. Under the money laundering regulations in force we are required to carry out relevant due diligence checks. This includes verifying the identity of all customers we transact with as well as any beneficial owners on behalf of whom they may transact. Vendors who are unable to or refuse to supply required identification documents and proof of address will not be able to consign to Dreweatts auctions. Copies of customer due diligence checks will be stored for as long as it is necessary to satisfy legal requirements in an appropriate storage facility, which for the avoidance of doubt may include storage solely in electronic form. We reserve the right to withhold the monies owed until the vendor provides the information necessary to complete the anti-money laundering checks.

17. AUTHORITY TO DEDUCT COMMISSION AND EXPENSES AND RETAIN PREMIUM AND INTEREST

(a) You authorise us to deduct commission at the stated rate and all expenses incurred for your account from the hammer price and consent to our right to retain beneficially the premium paid by the buyer in accordance with our Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions and any interest earned on the sale proceeds until the date of settlement.

(b) In case of lots unsold at auction you authorise us at our discretion to reoffer such lots and negotiate a sale within seven days of the auction date, in which case the same charges will be payable as if such lots had been sold at auction and so far as appropriate these Terms apply.

18. WAREHOUSING. We disclaim all liability for goods delivered to our saleroom without sufficient sale instructions and reserve the right to make minimum warehousing charge of £10 per lot per day. Unsold lots are subject to the same charges if you do not remove them within a reasonable time of notification. If not removed within three weeks we reserve the right to sell them and defray charges from any net proceeds of sale or at your expense to consign them to the local authority for disposal.

19. SETTLEMENT. After sale settlement of the net sum due to you normally takes place within 28 days of the sale unless the buyer has not paid for the goods or the checks necessary under the current Money Laundering Regulations have not been completed. In this case no settlement will then be made but we will take your instructions in the light of our Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions. You authorise any sums owed by you to us on other transactions to be deducted from the sale proceeds. You must note the liability to reimburse the proceeds of sale to us as under the circumstances provided for in Condition 12 above. You should therefore bear this potential liability in mind before parting with the proceeds of sale until the expiry of 28 days from the date of sale.

CONDITIONS OF SALE FOR PUBLIC AUCTIONS

Dreweatts carries on business with bidders, buyers and all those present in the auction room prior to or in connection with a sale by auction at our salerooms on our Auction Terms and Conditions or Public Auctions including these Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions and all bidders, buyers and others participating in a public auction accept that these terms apply to the exclusion of any terms and conditions contained in any of those person's own documents even if the same purport to provide that that person's own or some other terms prevail. Any particular public auction and/or any particular lot in an auction may be subject to different or additional terms which will be published in our online auction catalogue. Please note that our Auction Terms and Conditions including these Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions relate to auctions held in one of our salerooms and we have separate terms and conditions for our online auctions.

1. DEFINITIONS
In these Conditions:
(a) "auctioneer" means the firm of Dreweatts or its authorised auctioneer, as appropriate;
(b) "deliberate forgery" means an imitation made with the intention of deceiving as to authorship, origin, date, age, period, culture or source but which is unequivocally described in the catalogue as being the work of a particular creator and which at the date of the sale had a value materially less than it would have had if it had been in accordance with the description;
(c) "hammer price" means the level of bidding reached (at or above any reserve) when the auctioneer brings down the hammer;
(d) "terms of consignment" means the stipulated terms and rates of commission on which Dreweatts accepts instructions from sellers or their agents;
(e) "total amount due" means the hammer price in respect of the lot sold together with any premium, Value Added Tax chargeable and any additional charges payable by a defaulting buyer under these Conditions;
(f) "sale proceeds" means the net amount due to the seller, being the hammer price of the lot sold less commission at the stated rate, Value Added Tax chargeable and any other amounts due to us by the seller in whatever capacity and however arising;
(g) "You", "Your", etc. refer to the buyer as identified in Condition 2.
(h) The singular includes the plural and vice versa as appropriate.
2. BIDDING PROCEDURES AND THE BUYER
(a) Bidders are required to register their particulars before bidding by completing a sale registration form and to satisfy any security arrangements before entering the auction room to view or bid;
(b) Under the money laundering regulations in force we are required to verify the identity of all customers we transact with as well as any beneficiaries on behalf of whom they may transact. Customers who are unable to or refuse to supply required identification documents and proof of address will not be able to bid in Dreweatts auctions. Copies of customer due diligence checks will be stored for as long as it is necessary to satisfy legal requirements in an appropriate storage facility which for the avoidance of doubt may include storage solely in electronic form;
(c) the maker of the highest bid accepted by the auctioneer conducting the sale shall be the buyer at the hammer price and any dispute about a bid shall be settled at the auctioneer's absolute discretion by reoffering the Lot during the course of the auction or otherwise. The auctioneer shall act reasonably in exercising this discretion.
(d) Bidders shall be deemed to act as principals;
(e) Our right to bid on behalf of the seller is expressly reserved up to the amount of any reserve and the right to refuse any bid is also reserved.
3. INCREMENTS. Bidding increments shall be at the auctioneer's sole discretion.
4. THE PURCHASE PRICE. The buyer shall pay the purchase price together with a premium thereon of 30% which shall include VAT on the premium at the rate imposed by law. The buyer will also be liable for any royalties payable under Droit de Suite as set out under Information for Buyers.
5. VALUE ADDED TAX. Value Added Tax on the hammer price is imposed by law on all items affixed with a dagger (†) or double dagger (‡). Value Added Tax is charged at the appropriate rate prevailing by law at the date of sale and is payable by buyers of relevant Lots. (Please refer to "Information for Buyers" for a brief explanation of the VAT position).
6. PAYMENT
(a) Immediately a Lot is sold you will:
(i) give to us, if requested, proof of identity, and
(ii) pay to us the total amount due or in such other way as is agreed by us.

(b) Any payments by you to us may be applied by us towards any sums owing from you to us on any account whatever without regard to any directions of you or your agent, whether expressed or implied.
(c) In order to comply with money laundering regulations we reserve the right to require proof of source of funds and/ or confirmation of the nature and source of wealth for all receipts of monies from clients directly or from third parties for payments on behalf of clients. Lots will only be released once we have completed necessary checks under the current Money Laundering Regulations.
7. TITLE AND COLLECTION OF PURCHASES
(a) The ownership of any Lots purchased shall not pass to you until you have made payment in full to us of the total amount due.
(b) You shall at your own risk and expense take away any lots that you have purchased and paid for not later than 3 working days following the day of the auction after which you shall be responsible for any removal, storage and insurance charges.
(c) No purchase can be claimed or removed until it has been paid for and we have completed necessary checks under the current Money Laundering Regulations.
8. REMEDIES FOR NON-PAYMENT OR FAILURE TO COLLECT PURCHASES
(a) If any Lot is not paid for in full and taken away in accordance with these Conditions or if there is any other breach of these Conditions, we, as agent for the seller and on our own behalf, shall at our absolute discretion and without prejudice to any other rights we may have, be entitled to exercise one or more of the following rights and remedies:
(i) to proceed against you for damages for breach of contract;
(ii) to rescind the sale of that Lot and/or any other Lots sold by us to you;
(iii) to resell the Lot (by auction or private treaty) in which case you shall be responsible for any resulting deficiency in the total amount due (after crediting any part payment and adding any resale costs). Any surplus so arising shall belong to the seller;
(iv) to remove, store and insure the Lot at your expense and, in the case of storage, either at our premises or elsewhere;
(v) to charge interest at a rate not exceeding 1.5% per month on the total amount due to the extent it remains unpaid for more than 3 working days after the sale;
(vi) to retain that or any other Lot sold to you until you pay the total amount due;
(vii) to reject or ignore bids from you or your agent at future auctions or to impose conditions before any such bids shall be accepted;
(viii) to apply any proceeds of sale of other Lots due or in future becoming due to you towards the settlement of the total amount due and to exercise a lien (that is a right to retain possession of) any of your property in our possession for any purpose until the debt due is satisfied.
(b) We shall, as agent for the seller and on our own behalf pursue these rights and remedies only so far as is reasonable to make appropriate recovery in respect of breach of these conditions.
9. THIRD PARTY LIABILITY. All bidders, buyers and other members of the public on our premises are there at their own risk and must note the lay-out of the accommodation and security arrangements. Accordingly neither the auctioneer nor our employees or agents shall incur liability for death or personal injury or for the safety of the property of persons visiting prior to or at a sale (except in each case as may be required by law by reason of our negligence)
10. COMMISSION BIDS. Whilst prospective buyers are strongly advised to attend the auction and are always responsible for any decision to bid for a particular Lot and shall be assumed to have carefully inspected and satisfied themselves as to its condition, we will if so instructed clearly and in writing execute bids on their behalf. Neither the auctioneer nor our employees or agents shall be responsible for any failure to do so.
Where two or more commission bids at the same level are recorded we reserve the right in our absolute discretion to prefer the first bid so made.
11. WARRANTY OF TITLE AND AVAILABILITY. The seller warrants to the auctioneer and you that the seller is the true owner of the property consigned or is properly authorised by the true owner to consign for sale and is able to transfer good and marketable title to the property free from any third party claims.
Save as expressly set out above, all other warranties, conditions or other terms which might have effect between the Seller and you, or us and you, or be implied or incorporated by statute, common law or otherwise are excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law.
12. AGENCY. The auctioneer normally acts as agent only and disclaims any responsibility for default by sellers or buyers.

13. TERMS OF SALE. The seller acknowledges that Lots are sold subject to the stipulations of these Conditions in their entirety and on the Terms of Consignment for Public Auctions as notified to the consignor at the time of the entry of the Lot.
14. DESCRIPTIONS AND CONDITION
(a) Whilst we seek to describe lots accurately, it may be impractical for us to carry out exhaustive due diligence on each lot. Prospective buyers are given ample opportunities to view and inspect before any sale and they (and any independent experts on their behalf) must satisfy themselves as to the accuracy of any description applied to a lot. Prospective buyers also bid on the understanding that, inevitably, representations or statements by us as to authorship, genuineness, origin, date, age, provenance, condition or estimated selling price involve matters of opinion. We undertake that any such opinion shall be honestly and reasonably held and accept liability for opinions given negligently or fraudulently. Subject to the foregoing neither we the auctioneer nor our employees or agents nor the seller accept liability for the correctness of such opinions and all conditions and warranties, whether relating to description, condition or quality of lots, express, implied or statutory, are hereby excluded. Dreweatts is not liable for damage to gilded picture frames, plaster picture frames or picture frame glass; if the Lot is or becomes dangerous, we may dispose of it without notice to you in advance in any manner we see fit and will be under no liability for doing so. This Condition is subject to the next following Condition concerning deliberate forgeries and applies save as provided for in paragraph 6 "information to buyers".
(b) Private treaty sales made under these Conditions are deemed to be sales by auction for purposes of consumer legislation.
15. FORGERIES. Notwithstanding the preceding Condition, any Lot which proves to be a deliberate forgery (as defined) may be returned to us by you within 21 days of the auction provided it is in the same condition as when bought, and is accompanied by particulars identifying it from the relevant catalogue description and a written statement of defects. If we are satisfied from the evidence presented that the Lot is a deliberate forgery we shall refund the money paid by you for the Lot including any buyer's premium provided that (1) if the catalogue description reflected the accepted view of scholars and experts as at the date of sale or
(2) you personally are not able to transfer a good and marketable title to us, you shall have no rights under this condition.
The right of return provided by this Condition is additional to any right or remedy provided by law or by these Conditions of Sale.
16. PRIVACY NOTICE. We will hold and process any personal data in relation to you in accordance with our current privacy policy, a copy of which is available on our website www.dreweatts.com/privacy-policy/.
GENERAL
17. We shall have the right at our discretion, to refuse admission to our premises or attendance at our auctions by any person.
18. (a) Any right to compensation for losses liabilities and expenses incurred in respect of and as a result of any breach of these Conditions and any exclusions provided by them shall be available to the seller and/or the auctioneer as appropriate.
(b) Such rights and exclusions shall extend to and be deemed to be for the benefit of employees and agents of the seller and/or the auctioneer who may themselves enforce them.
19. Any notice to any buyer, seller, bidder or viewer may be given by first class mail, email or Swiftmail in which case it shall be deemed to have been received by the addressee 48 hours after posting.
20. Special terms may be used in catalogue descriptions of particular classes of items in which case the descriptions must be interpreted in accordance with any glossary appearing at the commencement of the catalogue.
21. Any indulgence extended to bidders, buyers or sellers by us notwithstanding the strict terms of these Conditions or of the Terms of Consignment shall affect the position at the relevant time only and in respect of that particular concession only; in all other respects these Conditions shall be construed as having full force and effect.
22. These Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and the parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
