A GUIDE FOR BUYERS

REGISTRATION AND BIDDING

We advise bidders to register at least 48 hours in advance of the auction as we will need to complete Know Your Client checks on all registrants in order to comply with sanctions regimes. Clients are advised to register with a correct account as re-billing will not be possible. We allow commission (or absentee bids), telephone bids, live online bidding, and in person bidding. More information is available in our Terms of Sale at the back of this catalogue, and on our website.

BUYER’S PREMIUM

27% of hammer price up to £20,000
(32.4% including VAT), plus

26% of hammer price from £20,001 up to £500,000
(31.2% including VAT), plus

20% of hammer price in excess of £500,001
(24% including VAT)

ADDITIONAL CHARGES AND SYMBOLS

λ - Indicates that this lot may be subject to Artist’s Resale Right (Droit de Suite) royalty charges.

Y - Indicates that this lot may be subject to CITES regulations when exported.

† - Indicates that VAT is payable by the purchaser at the standard rate of 20% on the hammer price as well as being charged on the buyer’s premium.

θ - Indicates that the lot is a zero rated item and therefore subject to buyer’s premium of 27% exclusive of VAT (0% VAT).

‡ - Indicates that the lot is being sold whilst subject to temporary importation and that import VAT at the reduced rate (currently 5%) calculated on the hammer price is due.

Ω - Indicates that the lot has been imported from outside the UK and that import VAT at the standard rate (currently 20%) calculated on the hammer price (inclusive of any applicable duty) is due.

β - Indicates that the lot is offered in Bond. This applies to wine. Bidding will be at duty paid prices other than for those lots marked ‘IN BOND/β’.

Note, the import VAT charged for lots with symbols ‡ or Ω can be refunded if Dreweatts is instructed to re-export the property or if the VAT liability is transferred to another Temporary Admission authorisation.

PAYMENT

If you are successful, an invoice will be sent to the email address registered on your bidder account. The invoice will include detailed payment and collection information. If you wish to see this in advance, please visit our website. Items must be paid for in full and Know Your Client checks must be completed before we can release any purchases. Third party payments are not accepted. First time buyers may also be subject to restrictions on the methods of payment we can accept. Please confirm this with the saleroom prior to collection.

COLLECTIONS, SHIPPING AND STORAGE

Purchases are available for collection from Dreweatts London, 16-17 Pall Mall, St James’s, London SW1Y 5LU from Monday to Friday (9am-5pm) by appointment only.

Lots with ‡ symbol have been imported into the UK under Temporary Admission regime. Prior to releasing the lots to UK buyers, Dreweatts will have to make full import arrangements. 5% import VAT will be due on the hammer price for any lot remaining in the UK. Buyers intending to re-export the lots are asked to contact Dreweatts to organise correct exportation from the UK to release the VAT liability.

A list of our suggested shippers is available on the Dreweatts website. Third party collections are permitted on receipt of authorisation from the invoiced buyer. To arrange a collection, contact Dreweatts | tel: +44 (0) 20 7839 8880| email: london@dreweatts.com.

Due to a busy schedule of sales, we are unable to store sold items at the salerooms; any items not collected after 4 working days of the sale (by 4pm) may be removed to commercial storage and subject to a storage charge of £20 (plus VAT) per lot as well as a further storage charge of £3 (plus VAT) per lot per day thereafter.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

Any registration to bid is subject to acceptance of our Auction Terms and Conditions and Privacy Policy. Both are available on our website.

CONDITION OF ITEMS

Buyers must satisfy themselves to the condition of any item prior to bidding. Detailed condition reports and additional images are available upon request.

EXPORT OF ITEMS

Prospective bidders are advised to familiarise themselves with any export and import restrictions or prohibitions applicable to the lots they wish to purchase. For example, the lots may contain prohibited material such as endangered species (and therefore be subject to CITES regulations) or be subject to shipping or trade restrictions. Cultural objects of certain age and value may require a UK export licence. It is buyer’s responsibility to obtain any relevant export and/or import licences and permits, as well as pay any customs duties, taxes and other fees applicable on import into the destination country. Dreweatts will not cancel the sale if a lot may not be exported, imported or it is seized for any reason by a government authority.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Where relevant, for example Picture auctions or Clocks auctions, a glossary of cataloguing terms will be available in the printed catalogues as well as on our website.

THOMAS STURGE-MOORE AND HOKUSAI'S 'GREAT WAVE'

Thomas Sturge-Moore by Charles Haslewood Shannon, RA (1863-1937), courtesy of Leonie Sturge-Moore

The Great Wave off Kanagawa, the print by the Japanese artist Katsushika Hokusai (1760-1849) from his series Thirty-Six Views of Mount Fuji (1831), is one of the most internationally recognised images in Japanese art. The work visually encapsulates a dramatic moment, portraying a towering, frothing wave poised to engulf three small boats, with the serene silhouette of Mount Fuji in the background. This striking juxtaposition of nature's overwhelming ferocity contrasted with an enduring tranquillity captures a sublime moment that balances beauty and chaos, an effect that deeply influenced Western artists and poets.

This example of Hokusai's celebrated print was formerly in the possession of Thomas Sturge-Moore (1870-1944), a British illustrator, wood-engraver, author, and poet. Moore received his education at Dulwich College, Croydon Art School and Lambeth School of Art, London, where he met fellow artists Charles Shannon (1863-1937) and Charles Ricketts (1866-1931). They introduced Moore to the Vale Press, and he contributed to the press's periodical The Dial. Moore was also associated with notable figures such as Laurence Binyon (1869-1943) and W. B. Yeats (1865-1939), for whom he designed numerous book covers.

The late 19th and early 20th centuries witnessed a surge in Western fascination with Japanese art, a phenomenon referred to as Japonisme. Moore, like many contemporaries, was immersed in the symbolist movement of the time and was influenced by the aesthetic characteristics of Japanese woodblock prints: flat perspective, bold lines, and asymmetry. This stylistic inclination is evident in Moore's woodcut designs and book illustrations, which emphasise line quality and compositional balance. His work with the Vale Press and associations with artists such as James McNeill Whistler (1834-1904) and Lucien Pissarro (1863-1944) further underscore a collective dedication to the study and appreciation of Japanese artistic traditions.

Moore likely discovered in Japanese prints an ideal of clarity, stylisation, and philosophical depth. Hokusai's The Great Wave resonated with Moore's explorations of mortality, nature, and the transcendent power of art. As a visual artist, Moore would have appreciated the compositional elegance and symbolic resonance of Japanese prints, admiring how artists like Hokusai conveyed narrative and emotion through line and spatial rhythm. In his book designs and illustrations, Moore employed similar restraint and stylised ornamentation, reflecting the influence of ukiyo-e aesthetics. While waves do not play a prominent role in Moore's illustrative repertoire, he demonstrates a clear affinity for natural forms, as evidenced in his woodcut Pan as an Island (1905), which depicts the figure of Pan manifesting as an island amidst a turbulent sea, characterised by strong fluid line work. Similarly, The Sermon on the Mount (1904), a wood engraving featuring ships in the background, hints at a maritime interest.

Moreover, Moore's poetic oeuvre also reflects a deep engagement with elements of nature, frequently employing maritime imagery to evoke themes related to the sea and waves. In his poem Words for the Wind (1914), he personifies the wind as an entity intertwined with the sea's dynamism. The Rower's Chant vividly illustrates a rower's relentless journey, echoing resilience against nature's challenges, similar to the theme in Hokusai's The Great Wave. Thus, Moore's artistic trajectory can be perceived as an intersection with Hokusai's work, facilitating a dialogue between Eastern and Western artistic traditions.

Edo period, 19th century

woodblock print, from the series Famous Sights of the Fifty-three Stations (Gojusan tsugi meisho zue), also known as the Vertical Tokaido, signed Hiroshige hitsu (Brush of Hiroshige), censor's seal aratame (certified), published by Tsutaya Kichizo (Koeido), 7th month 1855

Vertical oban: 35.7x24.9cm.

Travellers ascend the steep slopes of the Satta Pass in Yui, one of the post-stations along the Tokaido [lit. East Sea Road] that connected the old capital of Kyoto with the new capital of Edo. The Shogunate ordered the construction of the pass on the steep mountainside of Satta in 1655 to ease the treacherous journey along the rocky shoreline. Wind-bent pines jut out from the cliff side; the dusk sunlight is bright with yellow and orange hues before the onset of night suggested by the black bokashi gradation at top.

woodblock print, from the series Famous Places in the Sixty-odd Provinces (Rokujuyoshu meisho zue), signed Hiroshige hitsu (Brush of Hiroshige), censor's seal aratame (certified), published by Koshimuraya Heisuke, block cutter's mark Hori Take (Yokokawa Takejiro), 12th month 1853, first state

Vertical oban: 35.9x24.1cm.

The Kannon Temple of Abuto stands on stilts at the edge of a rocky promontory. A hazy full moon peaks through the clouds; two boatman drift along the waters silhouetted in the misty dark.

It is thought that Hiroshige based this design on an earlier illustration by Fuchigami Kyokko (d. 1833) in the album Remarkable Landscape Views (Sansui kikan, 4 vols., 1800). This is the first state with clouds printed in the sky, and the rockwork sensitively rendered.

Vertical oban: 36.2x25.8cm.

The whirlpools of the narrow Naruto strait swirl violently among tall rockwork out at sea. A large wave with claw-like spume threatens to crash down from the upper left of the composition. Hiroshige suspends this moment of action in what could be described akin to the mie pose struck during scenes of heightened tension in kabuki theatre.

The extensive and numerous instances of bokashi [gradation] on the waves, rocky outcrops and distant mountains, signify that this is an early impression. A similar impression of the same print is in the collection of the British Museum, museum number 1902,0212,0.397.25.

SUDDEN SHOWER OVER SHIN-OHASHI BRIDGE AND ATAKE

One of Hiroshige's most renowned designs. It is universally considered as the masterpiece from the artist's final series One Hundred Famous Views of Edo.

Black clouds release a heavy summer downpour. Pedestrians crossing the bridge hurry off, huddled under umbrellas or straw capes. A solitary boatman guides his raft of logs along the river beyond. The bridge is the Ohashi, or Great Bridge, which crossed the Sumida River and along the far riverbank are the shogunal storehouses at Atake.

Hiroshige's prints, and ukiyo-e more generally, soon saw popularity amongst the Impressionists in Europe after Japan opened its borders in 1858. The artist Vincent van Gogh (1853-1890) was a collector of Japanese prints and greatly admired Hiroshige. His fascination with the artist resulted in two oil on canvas paintings based on two of Hiroshige's prints from the One Hundred Famous Views of Edo series: Plum Estate, Kameido (see Lot 27) and Sudden Shower over Shin-Ohashi Bridge and Atake. Bridge in the Rain (after Hiroshige) was executed exactly thirty years after the original work was published and embellishes the original design with a border ornamented with decorative kanji characters. For van Gogh, Japan occupied a utopian place within his imagination; it was the land depicted in woodblock prints unmarked by shadows and radiant with light and colour, and in his rendition the colours are noticeably more emboldened.

Bridge in the Rain (after Hiroshige) is in the collection of the van Gogh Museum, Amsterdam, object number s0114V1962.

Van Gogh's impression of Sudden Shower over Shin-Ohashi Bridge and Atake is also in the collection in the van Gogh Museum, Amsterdam, object number n0081V1962.

Another impression of the same print is in the collection of the Minneapolis Institute of Art, accession number P.75.51.411

Sudden Shower over Shin-Ohashi Bridge and Atake

(Ohashi Atake no yudachi)

Edo period, 19th century

As black clouds release a heavy downpour of summer rain, pedestrians crossing the bridge scurry off for shelter, huddling under straw capes, hats, or parasols. In the river below, a lone boatman steers his raft of logs before the Shogunal storehouses at Atake. The Ohashi [lit. Great Bridge] crossed the Sumida River that flowed through the heart of the capital of Edo. One of Hiroshige's most renowned designs, Sudden Shower over Shin-Ohashi Bridge and Atake, is universally considered as the masterpiece from the artist's series One Hundred Famous Views of Edo.

Hiroshige's prints, and ukiyo-e more generally, soon saw popularity amongst the Impressionists in Europe after Japan opened its borders in 1858. The Dutch artist Vincent van Gogh (1853-1890) was a collector of Japanese prints and greatly admired Hiroshige. In 1887, thirty years after One Hundred Famous Views of Edo was published, van Gogh made two oil on canvas paintings based on two prints from the series: Plum Estate, Kameido and Sudden Shower over Shin-Ohashi Bridge and Atake. Bridge in the Rain (after Hiroshige) ornaments the original design with a decorative border of kanji characters.

Bridge in the Rain (after Hiroshige) is in the collection of the van Gogh Museum, Amsterdam, object number s0114V1962.

Van Gogh's impression of Sudden Shower over Shin-Ohashi Bridge and Atake is also in the collection in the van Gogh Museum, Amsterdam, object number n0081V1962

woodblock print, from the series One Hundred Famous Views of Edo (Meisho Edo hyakkei), signed Hiroshige ga (Pictured by Hiroshige), censor's seal aratame (certified), published by Uoya Eikichi, 11th month 1857

Vertical oban: 35.1x23.5cm.

Hiroshige's Plum Estate, Kameido famously inspired Vincent van Gogh's (1853-1890) painting Flowering Plum Orchard (after Hiroshige) in 1887.

The design was strikingly novel for its unusual vantage point, close-cropped composition, and extreme foreground framing. The viewer is situated before the branches of the Sleeping Dragon Plum (Garyubai), as visitors to the Tenman Shrine at Kameido come to admire the fragrance and blooms of its famous garden.

The oil on canvas by van Gogh is in the collection of the van Gogh Museum, Amsterdam, object number s0115V1962; as well as the tracing of the original print, object number d0772V1962.

The impression of Plum Estate, Kameido that inspired van Gogh to create this work is also in the collection of the van Gogh Museum, Amsterdam, object number n0077V1962.

Vertical oban triptych:
Centre sheet: 33.6x23cm
Right sheet: 34.9x24cm

A frightening sea creature emerges from the ocean depths; the surrounding waves crash and swell in the sudden chaos. Ten tengu appear to rescue Minamoto no Tametomo (1139-1170) from the tumult, whilst his retainer, Kiheji fearlessly rides the monster's back carrying his lord's son in his arms. In despair, Tametomo's wife Shiranui, sacrifices herself to the sea to appease its rage.

The adventures of the legendary archer Tametomo were described in the serial publication by Takizawa Bakin (1767-1848), Chinsetsu yumi hari tsuki [Bow of the Full Moon, 1807-1811]. After the retired emperor Sutoko's (1119-1164) defeat by Emperor Go-Shirakawa (1112-1192) during the Hogen Rebellion (1156), Tametomo was banished to the volcanic island of Oshima in Izu. Shipwrecked on his journey eastwards, Tametomo was saved by Emperor Sutoku, who is said to have summoned a group of tengu to bring him safely to shore on the Ryukyu Islands.

The Shuihu zhuan was introduced to Japan in the first half of the eighteenth century. adapted under the title Suikoden, more commonly known in English as the Water Margin. The prolific popular fiction writer Takizawa Bakin (1716-1848) began a Japanese translation and adaption of the novel titled Shinpen Suikogaden [New Illustrated Edition of the Suikoden], with illustrations by Katsushika Hokusai (1760-1849), sparking a craze for the Chinese tale. In 1826, the publisher Kagaya Kichibei collaborated with Kuniyoshi to design five single sheet prints depicting six of the most famous heroes, with subsequent prints commissioned following their success. Today, seventy-four designs from this series are known.

woodblock print, from the series Heroic Warriors for the Five Elements (Buyu gogyo), signed Ichiyusai Kuniyoshi ga, (Pictured

Vertical chutanzaku: approx. 36x12cm, (pictured by Kuniyoshi)

Vertical chu-tanzaku: 36.6x11.6cm.

The Heian period (794-1185) warrior Koga Saburo of Omi Province is suspended in a basket over a chasm. He wields a flaming brand; from the depths a three-clawed dragon emerges.

The five elements (gogyo) that are referred to in the series title are water (mizu); wood (ki); fire (hi); earth (tsuchi) and metal (kane). The philosophy of the five elements and a fundamental division of the physical world has its origins in Chinese philosophy. Kuniyoshi elaborates on the theme by comparing famous historical warriors to one of each of the five elements.

Vertical oban triptych: each sheet approx. 36.9x25cm.

Toyotomi Hideyoshi (1537-1598) dispatched his generals Kato Kiyomasa (1562-1611) and Konishi Yukinaga (1558-1600) to invade Korea in 1592. Here, Hida Magobei, one of Kiyomasa's retainers faces off with Bokubokushi, a Korean warrior. Large blooming red and blue peonies are in bloom across the three panels, signifying to the viewer that we are on the continent and not the archipelago of Japan, but the continent of Korea and China.

Meiji period, late 19th century

woodblock print, triptych, signed Yoshitoshi, sealed Taiso, the left sheet with carver's mark Horiko Enkatsu published by Akiyama Buemon (Kokkeido) in 1885

Vertical oban triptych: each sheet approx. 38x25cm.

As a young novice, the Abbot Yuten (1637-1718) prayed to Fudo Myoo for wisdom and was later visited by the deity in a dream. Here, the statue of Fudo Myoo leaps from its flaming pedestal and threatens the helpless novice to swallow his sword. Clasp his hands in prayer, Yuten seemingly accepts this trail of suffering. Fudo Myoo's attendants, Kongara Doji and Seitaka Doji, look on observantly. The black ground with subtle wiped gradation, as well as the spacious composition across the three sheets, lend to the overall dreamlike quality of the scene.

Vertical oban: 38.5x26.2cm

The Kintai [lit. Golden Sash] Bridge is a historical wooden arch bridge situated in Iwakuni, Yamaguchi Prefecture. Its unique form of five sequential arches spanning four stone piers was depicted in earlier ukiyo-e [lit. pictures of the floating world], both in works by Katsushika Hokusai (1760-1849) and Utagawa Hiroshige (1797-1858).

Hasui masterfully uses compositional devices seen in the vertical landscape works of Hiroshige to lend an air of classicism to the design. The vantage point is low; cherry blossoms are placed in the extreme foreground to frame the scene; and a solitary boatman provides the only sense of movement to the otherwise still and quiet depiction of a balmy spring evening.

 Yoshida Hiroshi (1876-1950)
 Nabeshima
 Showa period, 20th century

woodblock print, from the series Inland Sea (Seto Naikai), signed in Japanese in black ink Yoshida, and in pencil in Roman script to the bottom right margin Hiroshi Yoshida, sealed Hiroshi, titled in the lower left margin as above, with artist's jizuri (self-printed) seal, dated Showa gonen saku (made in 1930)

Horizontal oban: 26.8x40.1cm

Around the middle of March in 1930, Yoshida travelled the Inland Sea to sketch its myriad small isles and seascapes. These drawings formed the basis of many of his woodblock print designs of the islands there, from Kamishima, Tomonoura to Kinoue.

Nabeshima [lit. 'cooking pot' ilse] is a small island known for its chalk and western-style lighthouse constructed in the Meiji period (1868-1912). Here, sailboats drift along the island's calm waters; mountains in the distance are silhouetted against the haze of morning. A subtle, watercolour-like palette is achieved through the use of overprinting, as well as leaving large areas entirely unprinted, to show the effect of diffuse sunlight on the ocean surface.

 Yoshida Hiroshi (1876-1950)
 Lugano (Rugano machi)
 Taisho period, early 20th century

woodblock print, signed in Japanese in black ink Yoshida with artist's red flower seal, and in Roman script to the bottom right margin Hiroshi Yoshida, titled in English and in Japanese as above, with artist's jizuri (self-printed) seal, dated Taisho juyonen saku (made in 1925);

Horizontal oban: 39.3x26.2cm.

From deep orange to pale rose, the red-tiled roofs of Lugano seemingly modulate in the light of the sun. The tall white plaster facades contrast brilliantly with the deep blue of Lake Lugano. An extremely laborious and costly forty-one colour impressions were used for the execution of this print. Unlike other shin-hanga artists who worked in the traditional hanmoto system dividing labour between the artist, block-cutter, printer and publisher, Yoshida was greatly involved with the printing process. Through innovative techniques, such as mixing ink with unusual pigment types, as well as a grey colour block (nezumi-ban) to better render shadow, Yoshida's designs have a greater breadth of palette seen in preceding woodblock-printed landscape designs and the overall effect is more painterly.

Yoshida travelled to Europe in 1924 for several months where he made numerous sketches and watercolour studies. The prints from his European series were based on these preliminary works.

 37.5x19cm. (the second)

According to Amy Reigle Newland in Crows, Cranes & Camellias: The Natural World of Ohara Koson, 1877-1945 (Leiden, 2001), Sparrow and hydrangea is among Koson's most sophisticated compositions: 'The design proportions are superb, the positioning of the bird vis-a-vis the large blue-white hortensia blossom creates a degree of intimacy. The beautiful printing creates subtle colour transitions whilst the wood-grain in the grey background provides texture'.¹

IMPORTANT NOTICES

BUYING AT DREWEATTS
There are several ways you can bid at a Dreweatts auction; in person, by leaving a commission or absentee bid, on the telephone where available and live via the internet – please make arrangements before the sale. THIS NOTICE APPLIES ONLY TO A PERSON WHO WISHES TO BID IN PERSON, OR BY LEAVING A COMMISSION OR ABSENTEE BID, AT A DREWEATTS PUBLIC AUCTION. For bidding at an online auction or for online bidding at a public auction please see our Online Auction Terms published on our website at www.dreweatts.com.

BIDDING IN PERSON
If intending to buy you are required to register your name and details at reception prior to the commencement of the auction. You will be required to provide a proof of identity and address to register for bidding. You will then be allocated a bidding number, which you use when bidding for an item.

COMMISSION BIDS
Dreweatts will execute bids on your behalf if you are unable to attend the sale. Commission or absentee bids are accepted either directly at reception, or can be sent by post, fax, email, telephone or via the website: www.dreweatts.com.

Dreweatts will add these bids to the auctioneers’ sale book and will undertake to purchase the lots on your behalf as cheaply as allowed by other bids and reserves. If two buyers submit identical commission bids Dreweatts may prefer the first bid received.

Dreweatts does not accept liability for failing to execute commission bids, or for any errors or omissions.

CONDITION
Bidders must satisfy themselves as to the condition of each lot. Condition reports are available on request – see the Conditions of Business at the back of this catalogue forming part of these Auction Terms and Conditions for more information regarding condition reports. Requests for condition reports must be submitted by 4pm on the day prior to the auction; condition reports may be available alongside the lot description on the online catalogue at: www.dreweatts.com.

COMMISSION CHARGES
All purchases are subject to a buyer’s premium, which is charged per lot at 27% of the hammer price (32.4% including VAT) up to and including £20,000, 26% (31.2% including VAT) of the hammer price from £20,001 up to and including £500,000, 20% of the hammer price (24% including VAT) in excess of £500,001. A theta symbol (θ) indicates that the lot is a zero rated item and therefore not subject to VAT on the buyer’s premium. This applies to bound books (manuscripts and printed), unframed maps and albums. In the event the lot has a dagger (†) beside the lot number in the catalogue, this indicates that the lot is owned by an entity or company required to pay VAT (generally not an Antique Dealer, as they operate under a dealers margin scheme). VAT is payable at 20% on the Hammer Price. Lots marked with a double dagger (‡) (presently a reduced rate of 5%) or Ω (presently at standard rate of 20%) have been imported from outside the UK under Temporary Admission regime and therefore the buyer must pay the import VAT at the appropriate rate on the duty inclusive hammer price.

PAYMENT
Payment will be accepted, if you are a successful bidder, by debit card issued in the name of the Buyer by a UK bank and registered to a UK billing address; by all major UK issued credit cards issued in the name of the Buyer and registered to a UK billing address with the exception of Diners Club; by bank transfer direct into our bank account, Bank Details: NatWest, 30 Market Place, Newbury, Berkshire RG14 5AG. Account Name: Dreweatts 1759 Ltd. A/C: 62412949, Sort Code: 60-15-07, BIC: NWBKGB2L, IBAN: GB21NWBK60150762412949. The name of the bank account holder should match the name of the buyer. First time buyers who are not present at the saleroom are requested to pay by bank transfer.

Y CITES REGULATIONS
Please note that lots marked with the symbol (Y) in this catalogue may be subject to CITES Regulations when exported. Relevant CITES Regulations may be found at www.gov.uk/guidance/cites-imports-and-exports.

COLLECTIONS, SHIPPING AND STORAGE
Purchases are available for collection from Dreweatts London, 16-17 Pall Mall, St James’s, London SW1Y 5LU from Monday to Friday (9am-5pm) by appointment only. Lots with ‡ symbol have been imported into the UK under Temporary Admission regime. Prior to releasing the lots to UK buyers, Dreweatts will have to make full import arrangements. 5% import VAT will be due on the hammer price for any lot remaining in the UK. Buyers intending to re-export the lots are asked to contact Dreweatts to organise correct exportation from the UK to release the VAT liability. A list of our suggested shippers is available on the Dreweatts website. Third party collections are permitted on receipt of authorisation from the invoiced buyer. To arrange a collection, contact Dreweatts | tel: +44 (0) 20 7839 8880| email: london@dreweatts.com. Due to a busy schedule of sales, we are unable to store sold items at the salerooms; any items not collected after 4 working days of the sale (by 4pm) may be removed to commercial storage and subject to a storage charge of £20 (plus VAT) per lot as well as a further storage charge of £3 (plus VAT) per lot per day thereafter..

FURTHER INFORMATION
The colours printed in this catalogue are not necessarily a true reflection of the actual item. All weights and measures given in the catalogue should be regarded as approximate.

VALUATION SERVICES
Dreweatts provides a range of confidential and professional valuation services to private clients, solicitors, executors, estate managers, trustees and other professional partners. These services include auction valuations, insurance valuations, probate valuations, private treaty valuations, valuations for family division or for tax purposes. Parking is available at Donnington Priory in two car parks on either side of the saleroom.

INFORMATION FOR BUYERS AT PUBLIC AUCTIONS

1. INTRODUCTION. The following notes are intended to assist Bidders and Buyers, particularly those inexperienced or new to our salerooms. All of our auctions and sales are conducted on our printed Auction Terms and Conditions, including these Conditions of Sale and Business, which are readily available for inspection and normally accompany catalogues. Our staff will be happy to help you if there is anything you do not fully understand.

Any particular auction and/or any particular lot in an auction may be subject to different or additional terms which will be published in our auction catalogue. All auctions and sales of wines and spirits, jewellery, watches and clocks are subject to the special terms set out in the relevant Notices in relation to those items published in our auction catalogue and, in the event of any conflict or inconsistency, those special terms prevail over any other terms in our Auction Terms and Conditions. By bidding at the auction, you agree to be bound by these terms.

2. AGENCY. As auctioneers we usually act as agents for the seller whose identity, for reasons of confidentiality, is not normally disclosed. Accordingly if you buy at auction your contract for the item or items purchased is with the seller and not with us as the auctioneer.

3. ESTIMATES. Estimates are designed to help buyers gauge what sort of sum might be involved for the purchase of a particular lot. Estimates may change and should not be thought of as the sale price. The lower estimate may represent the reserve price and certainly will not be below it. Estimates do not include the Buyer's Premium or VAT (where chargeable). Estimates are prepared some time before the sale and may be altered by announcement before the sale. They are in no sense definitive.

4. BUYER'S PREMIUM. The Conditions of Sale forming part of our Auction Terms and Conditions require the buyer to pay a buyer's premium on the hammer price of each lot purchased. The buyer's premium is 27% of the hammer price up to and including £20,000, 26% of the hammer price from £20,001 up to and including £500,000, and 20% of the hammer price in excess of £500,001. VAT at the prevailing rate of 20% is added to buyer's premium and additional charges as defined below.

5. VAT. A theta symbol (θ) indicates that the lot is a zero rated item and therefore not subject to VAT on the buyer's premium. This applies to bound books (manuscripts and printed), unframed maps and albums. A dagger symbol (†) indicates that VAT is payable by the purchaser at the standard rate (presently 20%) on the hammer price as well as being an element in the buyer's premium. This imposition of VAT is likely to be because the seller is registered for VAT within the United Kingdom and is not operating the Dealers Margin Scheme. A double dagger (§) indicates that the lot is being sold whilst subject to temporary importation and that import VAT at the reduced rate (currently 5%) calculated on the hammer price is due. (Ω) Indicates that the lot has been imported from outside the UK and that import VAT at the standard rate (currently 20%) calculated on the hammer price (inclusive of any applicable duty) is due. Lots offered subject to temporary importation (§ or Ω) require relevant customs procedure to be completed prior to the property leaving Dreweatts' premises or being exported. Dreweatts will issue the instruction to a customs broker or shipper upon receipt of full payment for the lots. The import VAT charged for lots with symbols § or Ω can be refunded if Dreweatts is instructed to re-export the property or if the VAT liability is transferred to another Temporary Admission authorisation. Lots which appear without the above symbols indicate that no VAT is payable on the hammer price; this is because such lots are sold using the Auctioneers Margin Scheme and it should be noted that the VAT included within the buyer's premium is not recoverable as input tax.

6. DESCRIPTION AND CONDITION. Condition reports are provided on our website or upon request. The absence of a report does not imply that a lot is without imperfections. The detail in a report will reflect the estimated value of the lot. Large numbers of such requests received shortly before the sale may mean that reports cannot be provided for all lots. Members of staff are not trained restorers or conservators and, particularly for higher value lots, you should obtain an opinion from such a professional. Dreweatts is not liable for damage to gilded picture frames, plaster picture frames or picture frame glass; if a Lot is or becomes dangerous, we may dispose of it without notice to bidders in advance in any manner we see fit and will be under no liability for doing so. We recommend that you always view a lot in person.

We are dependent on information provided by the seller about a lot and whilst we may inspect lots and act reasonably in taking a general view about them we are normally unable to carry out a detailed examination and frequently no examination of lots in order to ascertain their condition in the way in which it would be wise for a buyer to do. Intending buyers have ample opportunity for inspection of goods and, therefore, accept responsibility for inspecting and investigating lots in which they may be interested and the corresponding risk should they not do so. Please note carefully the exclusion of liability for the condition of lots contained in the Conditions of Sale. Neither the seller nor we, as the auctioneers, accept any responsibility for their condition. In particular, mechanical objects of any age are not guaranteed to be in working order. However, in so far as we have examined the goods and make a representation about their condition in the auction catalogue, we shall be liable for any defect which is not reflected in that representation and which that examination ought to have revealed to the auctioneer but which would not have been revealed to the buyer had the buyer examined the goods. Additionally, in specified circumstances lots misdescribed because they are 'deliberate forgeries' may be returned and repayment made. There is a 3 week time limit. (The expression 'deliberate forgery' is defined in our Conditions of Sale).

7. ELECTRICAL GOODS. These are sold as 'antiques' only and if bought for use must be checked over for compliance with safety regulations by a qualified electrician before use.

8. EXPORT OF GOODS. Buyers intending to export goods should ascertain (a) whether an export licence is required and (b) whether there is any specific prohibition on importing goods of that character because, e.g. they may contain prohibited materials such as ivory. Ask us if you need help.

Private overseas buyers can only receive goods free of VAT or have the VAT amount refunded if Dreweatts acts as exporter in relation to the sale, the goods are exported within 3 months of the sale and Dreweatts is in possession of adequate export documents. The VAT refunds are available for transactions exceeding £2,500. If you arrange for the goods to be picked up/delivered to you directly we will charge UK VAT at the appropriate rate and no refund will be available. Please note, buyers are responsible for completing the importation procedures as well as the payment of any relevant duty/VAT payable on importation into the destination country.

Where the purchase has been made in the business or trading name, VAT refund will be available on proof of export provided within 3 months of the sale.

9. BIDDING. Bidders will be required to register before the sale commences and lots will be invoiced to the name and address on the sale registration form. Bidders are required to provide a government issued identity document and a proof of address. Please enquire in advance about our arrangements for telephone bidding.

10. COMMISSION BIDDING. Commission bids may be left with the auctioneers indicating the maximum amount to be bid excluding buyer's premium. Dreweatts will add these bids to the auctioneers' sale book and they will be executed as cheaply as possible having regard to the reserve (if any) and competing bids. If two buyers submit identical commission bids the auctioneers may prefer the first bid received. Please enquire in advance about our arrangements for the leaving of commission bids by telephone or fax. Dreweatts does not accept liability for failing to execute commission bids, or for any errors or omissions.

11. METHODS OF PAYMENT. Payment will be accepted, if you are a successful bidder, by debit card issued in the name of the Buyer by a UK bank and registered to a UK billing address; by all major UK issued credit cards issued in the name of the Buyer and registered to a UK billing address with the exception of Diners Club; by bank transfer direct into our bank account, Bank Details: NatWest, 30 Market Place, Newbury, Berkshire RG14 5AG. Account Name: Dreweatts 1759 Ltd. A/C: 62412949, Sort Code: 60-15-07, BIC: NWBKGB2L, IBAN: GB21NWBK60150762412949. The name of the bank account holder should match the name of the buyer. First time buyers who are not present at the saleroom are requested to pay by bank transfer.

12. COLLECTION AND STORAGE. Please note what the Conditions of Sale state about collection and storage. It is important that goods are paid for and collected promptly. Any delay may involve the buyer in paying storage charges.

13. λ ARTIST'S RESALE RIGHT (DROIT DE SUITE) ROYALTY CHARGES. Under Artist's Resale Right (ARR) UK art market professionals (including, but not limited to, auctioneers, art dealers and galleries) are required to collect a royalty for works of art produced by qualifying artists each time a work is resold during the artist's lifetime and for a period up to 70 years following the artist's death. This payment is only applicable to qualifying works of art when the hammer price reaches or exceeds £1,000. The charge is calculated on the portions of the hammer price according to the following rate bands:

Royalty Rate	Portion of the hammer
4%	up to £50,000
3%	between £50,000.01 and £200,000
1%	between £200,000.01 and £350,000
0.5%	between £350,000.01 and £500,000
0.25%	in excess of £500,000

The royalty charge is capped at £12,500 per artwork. All royalty charges are passed on, no handling costs or additional fees with respect to these charges will be retained by Dreweatts. The ARR charge is VAT exempt. All items in this catalogue that are marked with λ are potentially qualifying items. The charge will be added to the buyer's invoice and must be paid before items can be released to the buyer.

TERMS OF CONSIGNMENT FOR SELLERS IN PUBLIC AUCTIONS

The sale of goods at our public auctions and a seller's relationship with us are governed by our Auction Terms and Conditions including these Terms of Consignment for Sellers in Public Auctions and our Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions. Any particular auction and/or any particular lot in an auction may be subject to different or additional terms which will be published in our auction catalogue or separately announced prior to the auction. All auctions and sales of wines and spirits, jewellery, watches and clocks are subject to the special terms set out in the relevant Notices in relation to those items published in our auction catalogue and, in the event of any conflict or inconsistency, those special terms prevail over any other terms in our Auction Terms and Conditions. Please note that our Auction Terms and Conditions including these Terms of Consignment for Sellers in Public Auctions and our Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions relate to auctions held in our salerooms and we have separate terms and conditions for our online auctions.

If you, or another person acting on your behalf, provide goods to us to sell on your behalf at one of our auctions this signifies that you agree to and will comply with our Auction Terms and Conditions including these Terms of Consignment for Sellers in Public Auctions and our Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions.

1. INTERPRETATION. In these Terms the words 'you', 'yours', etc. refer to the Seller and if the consignment of goods to us is made by an agent or otherwise on the Seller's behalf we assume that the Seller has authorised the consignment and that the consignor has the Seller's authority to contract. All obligations that apply to the Seller under these Terms of Consignment for Sellers in Public Auctions shall apply to the owner of the goods and their agent jointly and separately. Similarly the words 'we', 'us', etc. refer to the Auctioneers.

2. WARRANTY. The Seller warrants that possession in the lots can be transferred to the Buyer with good and marketable title, free from any third party right and encumbrances, claims or potential claims. The Seller has provided all information concerning the item's ownership, condition and provenance, attribution, authenticity, import or export history and of any concerns expressed by third parties concerning the same.

3. ALL COMMISSIONS. and fees are subject to VAT at the prevailing rate.

4. COMMISSION. is charged to sellers and all selling terms are available from our salerooms.

5. REMOVAL COSTS. Items for sale must be consigned to the saleroom by any stated deadline and at your expense. We may be able to assist you with this process but any liability incurred to a carrier for haulage charges is solely your responsibility.

6. LOSS AND DAMAGE OF GOODS

(a) Loss and Damage Warranty - Dreweatts is not authorised by the FCA to provide insurance to its clients, and does not do so. However Dreweatts for its own protection assumes liability for property consigned to it at the lower pre-sale estimate until the hammer falls. To justify accepting liability, Dreweatts makes a charge of 1.5% of the hammer price plus VAT, subject to a minimum charge of £1.50, or if unsold 1.5% of our lower estimate. The liability assumed by Dreweatts shall be limited to the lower pre-sale estimate or the hammer price if the lot is sold. Dreweatts is not liable for damage to gilded picture frames, plaster picture frames or picture frame glass; if the Lot is or becomes dangerous, we may dispose of it without notice to you in advance in any manner we see fit and will be under no liability for doing so.

(b) If the owner of the goods consigned instructs us in writing not to take such action, the goods then remain entirely at the owner's risk unless and until the property in them passes to the Buyer or they are collected by or on behalf of the owner, and clause 6 (a) is inapplicable.

7. ILLUSTRATIONS AND PHOTOGRAPHS. The cost of any illustrations or photographs is borne by you. The copyright in respect of such illustrations and photographs shall be the property of us, the auctioneers, as is the text of the catalogue.

8. MINIMUM BIDS AND OUR DISCRETION. Goods will normally be offered subject to a reserve agreed between us before the sale in accordance with clause 9. We may sell Lots below the reserve provided we account to you for the same sale proceeds as you would have received had the reserve been the hammer price. If you specifically give us a "discretion" we may accept a bid of up to 10% below the formal reserve.

9. RESERVES

(a) You are entitled to place prior to the auction a reserve on any lot consigned, being the minimum hammer price at which that lot may be sold. Reserves must be reasonable and we may decline to offer goods which in our opinion would be subject to an unreasonably high reserve (in which case goods carry the storage and loss and damage warranty charges stipulated in these Terms of Consignment).

(b) A reserve once set cannot be changed except with our consent.

(c) Where a reserve has been set which we consider unreasonably high, an unsold charge will be payable in the event that the lots fails to sell, being the agreed selling terms calculated on the reserve, LDW at 1.5% and any photographic charges.

(d) Where a reserve has been placed only we may bid on your behalf and only up to the reserve (if any) and you may in no circumstances bid personally.

(e) Reserves are not usually accepted for lots expected to realise below £100.

10. ELECTRICAL ITEMS. These are subject to detailed statutory safety controls. Where such items are accepted for sale you accept responsibility for the cost of testing by external contractors. Goods not certified as safe by an electrician (unless antiques) will not be accepted for sale. They must be removed at your expense on your being notified. We reserve the right to dispose of unsafe goods as refuse, at your expense.

11. SOFT FURNISHINGS. The sale of soft furnishings is strictly regulated by statute law in the interests of fire safety. Goods found to infringe safety regulations will not be offered and must be removed at your expense. We reserve the right to dispose of unsafe goods as refuse, at your expense. The rights of disposal referred to in clause 10 and 11 are subject to the provisions of The Torts (Interference with Goods) Act 1977.

12. DESCRIPTION. Please assist us with accurate information as to the provenance, lawful import etc. of goods where this is relevant. There is strict liability for the accuracy of descriptions under modern consumer legislation and in some circumstances responsibility lies with sellers if inaccuracies occur. We will assume that you have approved the catalogue description of your lots and that your lots match those descriptions unless informed to the contrary. Where we are obliged to return the price to the buyer when the lot is a deliberate forgery under Condition 15 of the Conditions of Sale and we have accounted to you for the proceeds of sale you agree to reimburse us the sale proceeds and in any event within 7 days of our written notice to do so.

13. UNSOLD. If an item is unsold it may at our discretion be re-offered at a future sale. Where in our opinion an item is unsaleable you must collect such items from the saleroom promptly on being so informed. Otherwise, storage charges may be incurred. We reserve the right to charge for storage in these circumstances at a reasonable daily rate.

14. WITHDRAWN AND BOUGHT IN ITEMS. These are liable to incur a charge of 15% commission, 1.5 % Loss and Damage Warranty and any other costs incurred including but not limited to illustration and restoration fees all of these charges being subject to VAT on being bought in or withdrawn after being catalogued.

15. CONDITIONS OF SALE. You agree that all goods will be sold on our Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions. In particular you undertake that you have the right to sell the goods either as owner or agent for the owner with good and marketable title and free and clear of any third party rights or claims. You undertake to compensate us and any buyer or third party for all losses liabilities, costs and expenses suffered or incurred arising out of or in connection with any breach of this undertaking. We will also, at our discretion, and as far as practicable, confirm that an item consigned for sale does not appear on the Art Loss register, which is administered by an independent third party.

16. DUE DILIGENCE CHECKS AND ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING PROCEDURES. Under the money laundering regulations in force we are required to carry out relevant due diligence checks. This includes verifying the identity of all customers we transact with as well as any beneficial owners on behalf of whom they may transact. Vendors who are unable to or refuse to supply required identification documents and proof of address will not be able to consign to Dreweatts auctions. Copies of customer due diligence checks will be stored for as long as it is necessary to satisfy legal requirements in an appropriate storage facility, which for the avoidance of doubt may include storage solely in electronic form. We reserve the right to withhold the monies owed until the vendor provides the information necessary to complete the anti-money laundering checks.

17. AUTHORITY TO DEDUCT COMMISSION AND EXPENSES AND RETAIN PREMIUM AND INTEREST

(a) You authorise us to deduct commission at the stated rate and all expenses incurred for your account from the hammer price and consent to our right to retain beneficially the premium paid by the buyer in accordance with our Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions and any interest earned on the sale proceeds until the date of settlement.

(b) In case of lots unsold at auction you authorise us at our discretion to reoffer such lots and negotiate a sale within seven days of the auction date, in which case the same charges will be payable as if such lots had been sold at auction and so far as appropriate these Terms apply.

18. WAREHOUSING. We disclaim all liability for goods delivered to our saleroom without sufficient sale instructions and reserve the right to make minimum warehousing charge of £10 per lot per day. Unsold lots are subject to the same charges if you do not remove them within a reasonable time of notification. If not removed within three weeks we reserve the right to sell them and defray charges from any net proceeds of sale or at your expense to consign them to the local authority for disposal.

19. SETTLEMENT. After sale settlement of the net sum due to you normally takes place within 28 days of the sale unless the buyer has not paid for the goods or the checks necessary under the current Money Laundering Regulations have not been completed. In this case no settlement will then be made but we will take your instructions in the light of our Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions. You authorise any sums owed by you to us on other transactions to be deducted from the sale proceeds. You must note the liability to reimburse the proceeds of sale to us as under the circumstances provided for in Condition 12 above. You should therefore bear this potential liability in mind before parting with the proceeds of sale until the expiry of 28 days from the date of sale.

CONDITIONS OF SALE FOR PUBLIC AUCTIONS

Dreweatts carries on business with bidders, buyers and all those present in the auction room prior to or in connection with a sale by auction at our salerooms on our Auction Terms and Conditions or Public Auctions including these Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions and all bidders, buyers and others participating in a public auction accept that these terms apply to the exclusion of any terms and conditions contained in any of those person’s own documents even if the same purport to provide that that person’s own or some other terms prevail. Any particular public auction and/or any particular lot in an auction may be subject to different or additional terms which will be published in our online auction catalogue. Please note that our Auction Terms and Conditions including these Conditions of Sale for Public Auctions relate to auctions held in one of our salerooms and we have separate terms and conditions for our online auctions.

1. DEFINITIONS
In these Conditions:
(a) “auctioneer” means the firm of Dreweatts or its authorised auctioneer, as appropriate;
(b) “deliberate forgery” means an imitation made with the intention of deceiving as to authorship, origin, date, age, period, culture or source but which is unequivocally described in the catalogue as being the work of a particular creator and which at the date of the sale had a value materially less than it would have had if it had been in accordance with the description;
(c) “hammer price” means the level of bidding reached (at or above any reserve) when the auctioneer brings down the hammer;
(d) “terms of consignment” means the stipulated terms and rates of commission on which Dreweatts accepts instructions from sellers or their agents;
(e) “total amount due” means the hammer price in respect of the lot sold together with any premium, Value Added Tax chargeable and any additional charges payable by a defaulting buyer under these Conditions;
(f) “sale proceeds” means the net amount due to the seller, being the hammer price of the lot sold less commission at the stated rate, Value Added Tax chargeable and any other amounts due to us by the seller in whatever capacity and however arising;
(g) “You”, “Your”, etc. refer to the buyer as identified in Condition 2.
(h) The singular includes the plural and vice versa as appropriate.

2. BIDDING PROCEDURES AND THE BUYER
(a) Bidders are required to register their particulars before bidding by completing a sale registration form and to satisfy any security arrangements before entering the auction room to view or bid;
(b) Under the money laundering regulations in force we are required to verify the identity of all customers we transact with as well as any beneficiaries on behalf of whom they may transact. Customers who are unable to or refuse to supply required identification documents and proof of address will not be able to bid in Dreweatts auctions. Copies of customer due diligence checks will be stored for as long as it is necessary to satisfy legal requirements in an appropriate storage facility which for the avoidance of doubt may include storage solely in electronic form;
(c) the maker of the highest bid accepted by the auctioneer conducting the sale shall be the buyer at the hammer price and any dispute about a bid shall be settled at the auctioneer’s absolute discretion by reoffering the Lot during the course of the auction or otherwise. The auctioneer shall act reasonably in exercising this discretion.
(d) Bidders shall be deemed to act as principals;
(e) Our right to bid on behalf of the seller is expressly reserved up to the amount of any reserve and the right to refuse any bid is also reserved.

3. INCREMENTS. Bidding increments shall be at the auctioneer’s sole discretion.
4. THE PURCHASE PRICE. The buyer shall pay the purchase price together with a premium thereon of 30% which shall include VAT on the premium at the rate imposed by law. The buyer will also be liable for any royalties payable under Droit de Suite as set out under Information for Buyers.
5. VALUE ADDED TAX. Value Added Tax on the hammer price is imposed by law on all items affixed with a dagger (†) or double dagger (‡). Value Added Tax is charged at the appropriate rate prevailing by law at the date of sale and is payable by buyers of relevant Lots. (Please refer to “Information for Buyers” for a brief explanation of the VAT position).
6. PAYMENT
(a) Immediately a Lot is sold you will:
(i) give to us, if requested, proof of identity, and
(ii) pay to us the total amount due or in such other way as is agreed by us.

- (b) Any payments by you to us may be applied by us towards any sums owing from you to us on any account whatever without regard to any directions of you or your agent, whether expressed or implied.
(c) In order to comply with money laundering regulations we reserve the right to require proof of source of funds and/ or confirmation of the nature and source of wealth for all receipts of monies from clients directly or from third parties for payments on behalf of clients. Lots will only be released once we have completed necessary checks under the current Money Laundering Regulations.
7. TITLE AND COLLECTION OF PURCHASES
(a) The ownership of any Lots purchased shall not pass to you until you have made payment in full to us of the total amount due.
(b) You shall at your own risk and expense take away any lots that you have purchased and paid for not later than 3 working days following the day of the auction after which you shall be responsible for any removal, storage and insurance charges.
(c) No purchase can be claimed or removed until it has been paid for and we have completed necessary checks under the current Money Laundering Regulations.
8. REMEDIES FOR NON-PAYMENT OR FAILURE TO COLLECT PURCHASES
(a) If any Lot is not paid for in full and taken away in accordance with these Conditions or if there is any other breach of these Conditions, we, as agent for the seller and on our own behalf, shall at our absolute discretion and without prejudice to any other rights we may have, be entitled to exercise one or more of the following rights and remedies:
(i) to proceed against you for damages for breach of contract;
(ii) to rescind the sale of that Lot and/or any other Lots sold by us to you;
(iii) to resell the Lot (by auction or private treaty) in which case you shall be responsible for any resulting deficiency in the total amount due (after crediting any part payment and adding any resale costs). Any surplus so arising shall belong to the seller;
(iv) to remove, store and insure the Lot at your expense and, in the case of storage, either at our premises or elsewhere;
(v) to charge interest at a rate not exceeding 1.5% per month on the total amount due to the extent it remains unpaid for more than 3 working days after the sale;
(vi) to retain that or any other Lot sold to you until you pay the total amount due;
(vii) to reject or ignore bids from you or your agent at future auctions or to impose conditions before any such bids shall be accepted;
(viii) to apply any proceeds of sale of other Lots due or in future becoming due to you towards the settlement of the total amount due and to exercise a lien (that is a right to retain possession of) any of your property in our possession for any purpose until the debt due is satisfied.
(b) We shall, as agent for the seller and on our own behalf pursue these rights and remedies only so far as is reasonable to make appropriate recovery in respect of breach of these conditions.
9. THIRD PARTY LIABILITY. All bidders, buyers and other members of the public on our premises are there at their own risk and must note the lay-out of the accommodation and security arrangements. Accordingly neither the auctioneer nor our employees or agents shall incur liability for death or personal injury or for the safety of the property of persons visiting prior to or at a sale (except in each case as may be required by law by reason of our negligence)
10. COMMISSION BIDS. Whilst prospective buyers are strongly advised to attend the auction and are always responsible for any decision to bid for a particular Lot and shall be assumed to have carefully inspected and satisfied themselves as to its condition, we will if so instructed clearly and in writing execute bids on their behalf. Neither the auctioneer nor our employees or agents shall be responsible for any failure to do so.
Where two or more commission bids at the same level are recorded we reserve the right in our absolute discretion to prefer the first bid so made.
11. WARRANTY OF TITLE AND AVAILABILITY. The seller warrants to the auctioneer and you that the seller is the true owner of the property consigned or is properly authorised by the true owner to consign for sale and is able to transfer good and marketable title to the property free from any third party claims.
Save as expressly set out above, all other warranties, conditions or other terms which might have effect between the Seller and you, or us and you, or be implied or incorporated by statute, common law or otherwise are excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law.
12. AGENCY. The auctioneer normally acts as agent only and disclaims any responsibility for default by sellers or buyers.

13. TERMS OF SALE. The seller acknowledges that Lots are sold subject to the stipulations of these Conditions in their entirety and on the Terms of Consignment for Public Auctions as notified to the consignor at the time of the entry of the Lot.
14. DESCRIPTIONS AND CONDITION
(a) Whilst we seek to describe lots accurately, it may be impractical for us to carry out exhaustive due diligence on each lot. Prospective buyers are given ample opportunities to view and inspect before any sale and they (and any independent experts on their behalf) must satisfy themselves as to the accuracy of any description applied to a lot. Prospective buyers also bid on the understanding that, inevitably, representations or statements by us as to authorship, genuineness, origin, date, age, provenance, condition or estimated selling price involve matters of opinion. We undertake that any such opinion shall be honestly and reasonably held and accept liability for opinions given negligently or fraudulently. Subject to the foregoing neither we the auctioneer nor our employees or agents nor the seller accept liability for the correctness of such opinions and all conditions and warranties, whether relating to description, condition or quality of lots, express, implied or statutory, are hereby excluded. Dreweatts is not liable for damage to gilded picture frames, plaster picture frames or picture frame glass; if the Lot is or becomes dangerous, we may dispose of it without notice to you in advance in any manner we see fit and will be under no liability for doing so. This Condition is subject to the next following Condition concerning deliberate forgeries and applies save as provided for in paragraph 6 “information to buyers”.
(b) Private treaty sales made under these Conditions are deemed to be sales by auction for purposes of consumer legislation.
15. FORGERIES. Notwithstanding the preceding Condition, any Lot which proves to be a deliberate forgery (as defined) may be returned to us by you within 21 days of the auction provided it is in the same condition as when bought, and is accompanied by particulars identifying it from the relevant catalogue description and a written statement of defects. If we are satisfied from the evidence presented that the Lot is a deliberate forgery we shall refund the money paid by you for the Lot including any buyer’s premium provided that (1) if the catalogue description reflected the accepted view of scholars and experts as at the date of sale or
(2) you personally are not able to transfer a good and marketable title to us, you shall have no rights under this condition.
The right of return provided by this Condition is additional to any right or remedy provided by law or by these Conditions of Sale.
16. PRIVACY NOTICE. We will hold and process any personal data in relation to you in accordance with our current privacy policy, a copy of which is available on our website www.dreweatts.com/privacy-policy/.
GENERAL
17. We shall have the right at our discretion, to refuse admission to our premises or attendance at our auctions by any person.
18. (a) Any right to compensation for losses liabilities and expenses incurred in respect of and as a result of any breach of these Conditions and any exclusions provided by them shall be available to the seller and/or the auctioneer as appropriate.
(b) Such rights and exclusions shall extend to and be deemed to be for the benefit of employees and agents of the seller and/or the auctioneer who may themselves enforce them.
19. Any notice to any buyer, seller, bidder or viewer may be given by first class mail, email or Swiftmail in which case it shall be deemed to have been received by the addressee 48 hours after posting.
20. Special terms may be used in catalogue descriptions of particular classes of items in which case the descriptions must be interpreted in accordance with any glossary appearing at the commencement of the catalogue.
21. Any indulgence extended to bidders, buyers or sellers by us notwithstanding the strict terms of these Conditions or of the Terms of Consignment shall affect the position at the relevant time only and in respect of that particular concession only; in all other respects these Conditions shall be construed as having full force and effect.
22. These Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and the parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
